Contents

Preface to the English Edition ix
Translator's Preface xi
Acknowledgements xii

Introduction 1

1 Aspects of the Concept of the State 9
   1 The ideal-typical character of the concept of the state 12
   2 A state without qualities? The question of the state's purpose 15
   3 The monopoly of force 25
   4 The state as institution 36
   5 The criterion of the political 39

2 State and Rulership 46
   1 State and legitimacy 52
   2 Staring into the depths with a clear head: the legitimacy of legality 58
   3 Charismatic rule in the modern state? 62
   4 From personal to impersonal rule: East Elbia as a precursor of the modern state 67
   5 Democracy and bureaucracy in the modern state 71

3 Hermeneutics of the State 80
   1 The Action-oriented conception of the state 80
   2 The concept of chance 88
   3 Knowledge of the state 95

4 Theory of the State and Value Judgements 102
   1 The "perspective of reason of state" 105
   2 The nation as value 111
   3 The Machtstaat 124
   4 The state and ethics 133
   5 The state and the struggle over values 139
   6 Max Weber's ambivalence 146
Contents

5 The Archaeology of the Modern State 149
   1 The emergence of the modern state 152
   2 The history of the state as the history of bureaucracy 158
   3 Max Weber's questions 170
   4 State and law 173
   5 The rationalisation of the state 189

6 The State as Machine 195
   1 The metaphor of the state as machine 196
   2 The state as enterprise 202
   3 Max Weber's ambivalence 206

Conclusion 216

Bibliography 219

Index 244