Contents

Introduction: Guns, Opera, and Movies in a Nazi Town 1

Part 1. Sharpshooting
1. Local Growth, National Renewal, and Invented Traditions, 1919–25 23

2. From “Something That Concerns Everyone” to Cooperative Coordination, 1925–38 43

Part 2. The Göttingen Händel Festival
3. Modernism and Baroque as Counterpoint in a University Town, 1920–28 73

4. Aesthetic Changes, Political Transformation, 1928–38 100

Part 3. Cinema

Conclusion: The Rise and Fall of a Nazi Town 187

Notes 193

Bibliography 241

Index 259