Table of Contents

Volume 1

Foreword ................................................................. 12
About This Book ....................................................... 13
On the Way to a Prussian Icon ...................................... 15

The Religious Momentum ............................................. 16
Politics and Religion in the Sign of the Cross, Idea, Ideal and Instrument of Power ................. 16
The French Revolution and the Demystification of Religion ................................................. 20
Crusades for and against the Revolution .................................................................................. 24
The Cross as the Emblem of Spanish and Tyrolean Uprisings ............................................... 26
Russia's Holy War ......................................................... 28
The Consequences of Napoleonic Dominion over Europe ....................................................... 32

Prussia Between Defeat and Resurrection 1806-1813 ......................................................... 33
Prussia in the Hands of Napoleon ......................................................................................... 33
The Awakening of a National Consciousness ........................................................................ 36
The King Vacillates – and Saves State Reforms ................................................................... 40
Patriot or Traitor? A General Forces Change ....................................................................... 42
Prussia Rises Up – and with Her the King ............................................................................ 46

The 1813 Iron Cross .......................................................... 49

The Origin ........................................................................ 50
Silesia from 1807 to 1813 ....................................................................................................... 50
‘The People in Arms’ ............................................................................................................. 54
At War With France – The Foundation of the Iron Cross .................................................... 57
The Symbolism of Honour – From Knights’ Order to Order of Merit .................................. 60
Mercenaries Become the Defenders of the Fatherland .......................................................... 63
Designing a Decoration for Everyone ................................................................................... 66
The Foundation Decree for the Iron Cross – a First Draft ................................................... 68
The King of Prussia lays down the Framework ..................................................................... 70
The Definitive Version of the Foundation Decree ............................................................... 72
A Deed for the Everlasting Remembrance of Queen Luise .................................................. 80

The Significance of the Form and Material of the Iron Cross ............................................... 84
Religion, the Nation and Politics on the Eve of the War against Napoleon ......................... 84
The Rediscovery of the Teutonic Knights' Order ................................................................ 88
The Iron Cross – Symbol of a Nation Prepared to Fight .................................................... 92
Iron – The Social and National Symbol ............................................................................... 96
Excursus: The Idea of the Whole – Georg Friedrich Kersting's first Commemorative Painting ................................................................. 98

The Iron Cross – From Concept to Reality ......................................................................... 106
Cast Iron Works in Prussia and Saxony ................................................................................ 106
The King as Creator of the Iron Cross. .................................................................................. 112
Schinkel's Assistants, his Drawings and Two Types of Cast Iron Core ................................ 115
The Final Form of the Iron Cross ......................................................................................... 122
Derivation from the Russian Concept of 1812 .................................................................. 124

Bibliografische Informationen
http://d-nb.info/1053624050
Table of Contents

Manufacturing and Distribution 1813-1839 ................................. 134

The Prussian Iron Foundries in Gleiwitz and Berlin ........................ 134
The First Production Phase at the Berlin Foundry ............................ 138
The Gleiwitz Foundry Steps into the Breach .................................. 139
The General Orders Commission in Berlin ..................................... 140
The Iron Cross Can Only be Awarded by the King ............................. 143
Official Duties of the General Orders Commission with Regard to the Iron Cross ......................................................... 144
The Obligation to Return the Iron Cross and Subsequent Recycling Measures .............................................................. 145
Gold and Silversmiths Involved in the Production of the Iron Cross from 1813 ................................................... 146
The Various Silver Frames of Iron Crosses ................................. 151

The Grading of the Iron Cross ............................................... 156

The Additional Insignia for the 1st Class Iron Cross ....................... 156
Methods of Wearing the Iron Cross ........................................... 161
The Follies of Fashion – 'Prinzens' and Miniatures ........................... 164
The Ribbons ........................................................................ 165
The Grand Cross of the Iron Cross ........................................... 166
The Iron Cross with the Golden Rays ........................................... 170

Officially Equal, 1813-1819 .............................................. 172

Early and Posthumous Awards .................................................. 172
To Remember the Living and Honour the Dead ............................... 175
Numbers of Awards and Critical Conclusions .................................. 176
Excursus: The Alliance Between the Iron Cross and the Star of David .......................................................... 178
Award Documents and Proof of Ownership ................................ 180

The Iron Cross in Flag and Standard Finials ............................ 188

Exceptions in the Implementation of the Award Statutes .................. 192

Women and the Iron Cross ................................................. 192
Awards to Foreigners ....................................................... 195
The Kulm Cross .................................................................. 197
Reconnaissance of Civilian Wartime Merit ................................... 204
The Practice of Inheritance – The Discrepancy ................................

between the Decorated and the Entitled ........................................ 208

The National and Social Omnipresence of the Iron Cross .......... 220

The Quadriga atop the Brandenburg Gate ................................... 220
The Triumph and the Victory of Iron – The Kreuzberg Monument .... 223
The Bestowal of Royal Porcelain – The Iron Cross or 'Feldherren Service' (Commander's Service) ........................................... 224
Lodges under the Iron Cross .................................................. 226
Coats of Arms and Royal Emblems with the Iron Cross ................. 227
The 1870 Iron Cross

On the Way to War
- Still Problematic – The Relationship between France and Germany, 1840-1870
- A Political Move: Drawing on the Year 1813
- Like Father Like Son – The King applies Himself to the Task
- Voluntary Nursing During the War
- The Cross of Merit for Women and Girls.
- A Rebuff for the Order of St. John

Manufacture and Distribution
- The Military Cabinet and the General Orders Commission
- A Look Behind the Scenes – The Iron Cross Emerges
- Rewarding Bravery
- Sobering Figures: No Equality between Officers and Other Ranks
- ‘To be Returned’ – The Iron Crosses of the Fallen and Wounded
- Excursus: ‘We Are One Nation’: German Jews, 1870/71
- Retrospective Gratitude – Awarding the Grand Cross of 1870
- Award Documents
- Methods of Wearing the Iron Cross
- The Additional Decoration for Owners of the Iron Cross Second Class
- Provocation with the 1920 Iron Cross is Averted

Honouring Flags and Standards with the Iron Cross

Exceptions in the Implementation of the Award Statutes
- Iron Crosses for Foreigners and Women
- Recognition for Civilian Achievements in the War
- The Controversy around the Honorarium after 1870

Privileges, Resentment and the Omnipresence of the Iron Cross
- Knighthoods and Social Climbing under the Banner of the Iron Cross
- False Heroes
- The Berlin Victory Column
- Not Without the Iron Cross – The Personal Banner of the German Emperor
- In Memory of the Fallen and the 1870/71 War
- Epilogue