Table of Contents

Dedications ................................................................. v
List of Figures ................................................................. ix
Acknowledgments .............................................................. xi
Foreword ........................................................................ xvi
   By series editor Gaile S. Cannella

Introduction ........................................................................ 1
   By editors Ruth Nicole Brown, Rozana Carducci, and Candace R. Kuby

Section 1 Doing Disruptive Qualitative Inquiry: Methodologies, Politics, and Practices

Chapter One: "She Came at Me Wreckless!" Wreckless Theatrics as Disruptive Methodology ........................................ 35
   Ruth Nicole Brown

Chapter Two: Reports of Illegal Activities by Research Participants: Meaning-Making Through Reflexivity, Dis-Order, and Mexican-American Studies .................................................. 53
   Rosario Carrillo
Chapter Three: Promiscuous Methodology: Breaching the Limits of Theory and Practice for a Social Science We Can Live With ............... 71
Sara M. Childers

Chapter Four: CRIT Walking for Disruption of Educational Master Narratives .... 89
Mark S. Giles and Robin L. Hughes

Chapter Five: Always Already Inquiry: A/r/tography as a Disruptive Methodology ................................................................. 109
Nicole M. Pourchier and Teri Holbrook

Chapter Six: Crystallization as a Methodology: Disrupting Traditional Ways of Analyzing and (Re)presenting Through Multiple Genres ........................................ 129
Candace R. Kuby

Chapter Seven: Beyond Scientific “Facts”: Choosing to Honor and Make Visible a Variety of Knowledge Systems ......................................... 153
Cassie F. Quigley and Nicole Beeman-Cadwallader

Chapter Eight: “Bringing a Little Bit of Heaven to Humanity”: Raising Hell While Interrupting Traditional Methods for the Purpose of Justice .......... 173
David Stovall

Chapter Nine: Picture This: Using Photography to Tell a Black Girl’s Truth ...... 189
Claudine Candy Taaffe

Section 2 Living it Out: Disrupting Politics and Practices in the Academy

Chapter Ten: Identity as Inquiry: Living and Researching From the Borderlands ................................................................. 205
Z Nicolazzo

Chapter Eleven: Advancing Disruptive Methodological Perspectives in Educational Qualitative Research Through Teaching and Learning ........ 227
Penny A. Pasque

Chapter Twelve: Disrupting the Dissertation, Phenomenologically Speaking: A Reflexive Dialogue Between Advisor-Advisee ......................... 243
Hilary E. Hughes and Mark D. Vagle

Chapter Thirteen: Methodological Freedom: A Journey .......................... 261
Nana Osei-Kofi

Contributing Authors ................................................................. 273
Index ...................................................................................... 279