Contents

I. The Unleashed Scandal: An Introduction 1

II. The New Disclosers & the Old Media 32
   1. Matt Drudge & the experiment with the truth 33
   2. Jessica Cutler & the illusion of intimacy 47
   3. WikiLeaks & the uncontrollability of the data 59
   4. Karl-Theodor zu Guttenberg & the power of a swarm 82

III. The New Victims & the Power of the Public 99
   1. The hounding of Gao Qianhui & the emergence of a cybermob 101
   2. The fate of the student Wang Qianyuan & the clash of cultures 109
   3. The humiliated husband & the divorce battle of Trishia Walsh-Smith 119
   4. The pillory website for Amir & the joys of defamation 128

IV. The New Technologies & the Opportunities of Ruthless Documentation 137
   1. The photographs of Abu Ghraib & modern eyewitness testimony 139
   2. The camera phone film from Hong Kong & the mobile phone as an all-purpose weapon 161
   3. The calamitous e-mail & the easiness of misfortune 175
   4. The tell-tale SMS & the economy of morality 180
   5. The embarrassing Twitter message & the nature of sexuality 189
   6. The social media campaign of Greenpeace & the vulnerability of power 198

V. The End of Control in the Digital Age: A Programmatic Résumé 210

Index 223