1 Introduction ................................................................. 5
2 Neopentecostalism - Theoretical Grounding ......................... 9
  2.1 Religious Pluralism in Latin America ................................ 9
  2.2 The Market Theory .................................................. 12
  2.3 Market Theory in Latin America – Chesnut ....................... 15
    2.3.1 The four market criteria of success .......................... 18
  2.4 Market Share and Turnover – Explaining Religious Mobility .... 23
  2.5 Understanding religious choices through religious taste ........ 25
  2.6 Religious economy and religious actors – Bastian ............... 25
  2.7 Neopentecostalism and the Spirit of Capitalism – Weber ....... 28
  2.8 Challenges for the present investigation .......................... 29
  2.9 Religious Mobility and lifestyles .................................. 30
    2.9.1 Lima and Lifestyles as factor for religious taste ............ 32
    2.9.2 Internationalization and fragmented society ................ 41
  2.10 Hypotheses developed on the theoretical background ........... 45
3 Neopentecostals in Lima - Methodological Design .................. 46
  3.1 Approximation towards the pluralism within the evangelical spectrum ............................................................ 48
    3.1.1 Differentiation of Steigenga ................................. 50
  3.2 Neopentecostalism vs. Pentecostalism ............................. 54
  3.3 Neopentecostals in Peru ............................................. 57
    3.3.1 Tendencies of distinction of Neopentecostals in Peru ....... 60