Table of contents

Gaby Franger
Roma Rights and Discrimination – Approaches of a Rights-Based Social and Educational Work

Remembering
Veronika Armbruster

Gaby Franger
“We came to Auschwitz as innocent as the Lord God to the cross” Rosa Lehmann, Sintisa from Middle Franconia

Gaby Franger
Aunt Toni’s Button

Pathways of Exclusion embedded in Social Inclusion Policies
Romina Herrmann
Discrimination and Anti-Ciganism

Lisa Dörfler
Hate Crimes against Roma

Linda Kapfenberger, Nura Wolf
The Right to Education – Roma in the European Education System
Approaches to a Rights-Based Work..................................................101

Sophie Wagner
International Casework and Advocacy of the European Roma Rights Centre exemplified in the deportation of a suicidal Romani woman from Germany to Serbia......................102

Maria Roth, Cristina Raf
Raising awareness of ethnic discrimination with European Intensive Programs for Social Work students..............120

Rebekka Krauß
An Intersectional Perspective on Challenges for Roma in Europe........................................................................129

Maria José Casa-Nova
Thinking about Difference: Some notes on the Role of Social Scientists as Transformative Intellectuals .....................142

Jon Van Til
The Cosmopolitan Canopy: Beyond “Anti-“, Beyond Diversity.....152

Ágnes Kövér
Challenges and Opportunities: Teaching adverse Social Issues in a multinational and multicultural Context..........160

Epilogue: “…and then I decided to be a Rom.”.................................184

Authors.........................................................................................186