Table of Contents

Acknowledgements ........................................................................................................... V

SAMUEL BYRSKOG and TOBIAS HÄGERLAND
Introduction ......................................................................................................................... 1

Part One:
The Mission of Jesus in Research History

PER BILDE (†)
Can It Be Justified to Talk about Scholarly Progress in the History of Modern Jesus Research since Reimarus? ................................................................. 5

HALVOR MOXNES
The Mission of Jesus to “the Totality of the Jewish Land” in Schleiermacher’s Life of Jesus ........................................................................................................... 25

SAMUEL BYRSKOG
What is Historical about the Mission of the Historical Jesus? Rudolf Bultmann and the Hermeneutics of Memory .................................................... 41

JOSTEIN ÅDNA
The Messianic Claim of Jesus: An Appreciation and Appraisal of Martin Hengel’s Portrayal of the Historical Jesus ...................................................... 59

Part Two:
The Mission of Jesus in Historical Context

KARI SYREENI
From John’s Ministry to the Mission of Jesus: The Question of Continuity and Change in a Psychological Perspective.. 77
Table of Contents

MOGENS MÜLLER
The Effect of Jesus as Source for the Historical Figure ........................................ 93

Part Three:
The Mission of Jesus in Its Various Aspects

EVE-MARIE BECKER
Jesus and Capernaum in the Apostolic Age:
Balancing Sources and Their Evidence ................................................................. 113

RENATE BANSCHBACH EGGEN
Do the Parables Tell Us Something about the Mission of Jesus? ........... 141

MATTI KANKAANNIEMI
Mission as Reaction: Exhausted Jesus at the Well of Sycamor .............. 161

TOBIAS HÄGERLAND
The Role of the Disciples in the Prophetic Mission of Jesus.............. 177

VILLE AUVINEN
“Eloi, eloi, lema sabakhthani” (Mark 15:34)
– A Cry of Despair or Trust? .................................................................................. 203

List of Contributors .................................................................................................. 221

Index of Ancient Sources ....................................................................................... 223

Index of Modern Authors ....................................................................................... 232

Index of Subjects .................................................................................................... 238