TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface ................................................................. 11
Acknowledgments .................................................. 13

Chapter One: Introduction ........................................ 15
Purpose and Significance of the Study ......................... 15
  Purpose of Study .................................................. 15
  Significance of Dissertation .................................... 16
Christ and Culture—Political and Religious Confrontation 18
  The Separation—Political and Religious Factors ............ 18
  Political Factors .................................................. 20
  Religious Factors .................................................. 23
Household and the Chinese Catholic Patriotic Association 25
  Household in General ............................................. 25
  Household in China ............................................... 26
Religious Persecution and Seminary Formation: Consequence of the Conflicts between China and the Institutional Vatican 28
Methodology ......................................................... 32
Review of Literature .............................................. 33
  Part One: Chinese Sources ....................................... 33
  Part Two: Theological and Educational Sources ............. 35
  Part Three: Dissertations ........................................ 37
  Part Four: Church Documents ................................... 38
Synopsis of the Dissertation ...................................... 39

Chapter Two: Educit Obstetrix—Rebirth of Seminaries after the Cultural Revolution ... 41
The Tension between Politics and Religion in Comparison with John 18:28-19:16..... 41
  The First Scene: John 18:28-32 .................................. 44
  The Second Scene: John 18:33-38a .............................. 44
  The Third and Fourth Scenes: John 18:38b-40, 19:1-3 ....... 45
  The Fifth Scene: John 19:4-7 .................................... 45
  The Sixth Scene: John 19:8-12 ................................... 46
  The Seventh Scene: John 19:13-16 ............................. 46
Seminary Formation under Political Domination—the Process of Developing the Hidden Curriculum ........................................... 48
  Theological Rigidity ............................................... 49
  Spiritual Desensitization ......................................... 50
  Political Domination as the Hidden Curriculum ............... 51
Rebirth in the Soil of Confucianism .............................. 57
Summary ............................................................. 60

Chapter Three: Educat Nutrix—Nurturing Childlike Sagehood in the Chinese Catholic Seminaries .................................................. 63
Nurturing Sagehood—the Ideals of Education of Confucius and Moran .................. 63
Chapter Four: Instituit Paedagogus–Seminary Formation under the Essential Tension between Politics and Religion

Interview Report of Two Catholic Seminaries (Y and Z) in China (2009-2011)

Theological Education

Spiritual Formation

Ministerial Training

Visions of Future

Discussion of Interviews

Intellectual and Spiritual Formation

Community Life

Communication

Vision of Missio Dei

A Response to the Discussion of the Interview Report

The Incarnational Model as the Beginning and the End of Seminary Formation–Truly Catholic and Truly Chinese

The Incarnational Model

Truly Catholic and Truly Chinese

A Spiritual Long March–Theological Education for Political and Religious Dialogues

Academics of Seminaries

Spirituality of Seminaries

A School of Formation and Transformation

Summary

Chapter Five: Docet Magister–Showing How and What a Renewed Seminary Formation Program Should Be

Yin-Yang Interplay–Balancing Political Domination and Religious Subordination

Interplay of the Null and the Hidden Curricula

The Null Curriculum and the Online China Project

The Null Curriculum