TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. INTRODUCTION
- Aim of Study 13
- Field of Research
  - Material Worlds 15
  - Function of Princely Art 16
  - Collecting and Patronage 18
  - Swedish Royal Collections 21
  - Hedwig Eleonora 23
- Materials and Methods 25

II. TRADITIONS, NETWORKS AND RESIDENCES
- Traditions of Collecting and Patronage 35
  - Ducal Schleswig-Holstein-Gottorf and Electoral Saxony 35
- Networks of Family, Artists and Scholars
  - Family Networks 42
  - Artists and Agents 52
  - Scholars, the Learned and the Curious 57
- Residences at Hedwig Eleonora’s disposal
  - Life Rent: Gripsholm, Strömsholm and Tynnelsö 60
  - Patronage and Acquisition: Drottningholm and Ulriksdal 64
  - Peripheral Residences: Carlberg, Wrangel and Kungsör 68

III. A PICTORIAL WORLD
- Portraiture: Dynastic Relations 73
  - The Hall of State at Gripsholm 73
  - Hedwig Eleonora’s Dynastic Heritage 80
  - Portrait en Tableau 98
- Portraiture: Intimate Relations 103
  - Hedwig Eleonora’s Siblings in the Portrait Collections 103
  - Hedwig Eleonora’s Relatives in the Portrait Collections 113
  - Small-Scale Portraiture 120
- Pictures: Schillerijer 132
Paintings Celebrating the Gottorf Court 132
The Power of Fragility 140
Paintings Celebrating the Swedish Court 143

IV. A WONDROUS WORLD 149
Artificialia 151
  The Pretios Cabinet 151
  Ivories 160
  Gustavus Adolphus’ Kunstschrank 165
  Other Cabinet Pieces 168
Exotica 172
  Indianische 172
  Chinese and Japanese Collectibles 174
  Wondrous Rarities from the East, North and South 178
Nützliche Wunder 188
  Ephemera: Fruits and Herbs 189
  Bergwerke and Handsteine 197
  A Mineral Spring 207
Wonders in Pictures and Wonders at Court 209
  Hedwig Eleonora’s Court Dwarf 210
  The Wondrous Animals 213
  Foreign Cultures around Hedwig Eleonora’s court 217
Wonders at Hedwig Eleonora’s Court 222

V. A LEARNED WORLD 225
Scientifica 225
  Scientifica in the royal collections 1695 226
  Spheres and Globes 228
  Automata 230
  Clocks 235
  The Astronomer and the Prognostica 238
A Book Collection and an Inventory 241
  The Inventory 241
  The Books 241
  History and Fame through Books and Pictures 250
  Books at Ulriksdal and at Drottningholm 254
  A Kammerbibliothek and Scientifica collection 256

VI. CONCLUSIONS 259
The Material Characteristics of the Collections 259
Function and Reception 262
  Function of Hedwig Eleonora’s Patronage 263
  Reception of Hedwig Eleonora’s Patronage and Collections 263