Contents

Ehab Galal
Where has the authority gone?
New imperatives and audience research ......................................................... 7

Ehab Galal
Audience responses to Islamic TV: Between resistance and piety ..................... 29

Khalil Rinnawi
Cyber religious-national community? The case of Arab community in Germany ..................................................................................................................... 51

Ratiba Hadj-Moussa
Maghrebi audiences: Mapping the divide between Arab sentiment,
Islamic belonging and political praxis ................................................................. 71

Noha Mellor
Religious media as a cultural discourse: The views of the Arab diaspora in London ..................................................................................................................... 95

Vivian Ibrahim
Watching the history of the ‘present’: Religion and national identity in the Egyptian diaspora ....................................................................................... 115

Lise Paulsen Galal
Minority religion mediated: Contesting representation ........................................ 131

About the Contributors .......................................................................................... 151