Contents

Foreword by Bill Wyman ..................................................................................................................... 10

Prelude .................................................................................................................................................. 11

Introduction – Georgie Fame & His Music: There’s Nothing Else To Do ............................................. 13

1: “Like a little lamb that’s lost in wood”? Never! — Childhood & Teenage Years ......................... 15
R & B – Rhythm & Butlins — ETWA GF 63 BEAT .............................................................................. 18
Power & Wähde, Fury & Fame – the Larry Parnes touring stable ....................................................... 22
Fame Fired – for expanding on Rock’n’Roll & Jazz! ........................................................................... 32

2: “Get On The Right Track, Baby!” — The Flamingo Years ............................................................... 36
The Flamingo Story ............................................................................................................................... 37
“Move It On Over” – The Blue Flames take charge .............................................................................. 39
Enter The Hammond ............................................................................................................................. 43
Nimoi “Speedy” Acquaye – the conga wizard ...................................................................................... 49
Eddie “Tan Tan” Thornton ...................................................................................................................... 50
Enter the performing G.I.s .................................................................................................................... 51
Regulars at the Flamingo ....................................................................................................................... 52
Lucky Gordon, Christine Keeler & The Profumo Scandal ...................................................................... 56
Ska rivals jazzy R&B ............................................................................................................................. 61
Blue Flames play Blue Beat – but Georgie remains “stumm” ................................................................. 64
The Pirate Station that was started because of Georgie – Radio Caroline ........................................... 66
The legendary live album – Rhythm and Blues at the Flamingo ......................................................... 68
Rhythm And Blues at the Flamingo – track by track ........................................................................... 71
Rhythm & Blue Beat – the first studio EP ............................................................................................ 75
Dawn Yawn – The Flamingo legend continues ..................................................................................... 76
The Blue Flames – a merry-go-round talent factory .......................................................................... 82
“All About My Girl” – A little glimpse into the private price of Fame ................................................. 89
“Do It The Hard Way” – Gigging 10 dates a week .............................................................................. 89
(Not) All Quiet On The Studio Front – Single misses & Fame At Last ................................................. 91
The first studio album – Fame At Last .................................................................................................... 92
The first Number One – “Yeh Yeh”! ...................................................................................................... 95
Red Neck Blues – No Atlantic Crossover ............................................................................................ 100
“Get Away” with Sweet Things – Fame & Flames’ Golden Year of 1966 ............................................. 103
The Sweet Things album – track by track ......................................................................................... 105
The second number one – “Get Away”! ............................................................................................... 109
The End Of The Sixties Blue Flames .................................................................................................... 110
The End of The Flamingo Club ............................................................................................................ 112
The first Georgie Fame Big Band Album – Sound Venture ................................................................. 113
Sound Venture – track by track ........................................................................................................... 116
6: The Pye Years – From Stevie Wonder To Hoagy Carmichael

- Right Now! – Track-by-Track
- Interpreting Elvis – Costello’s title track for That’s What Friends Are For
- That’s What Friends Are For – track by track
- Closing The Gap – The Reggae album 15 years after the Ska Blue Flames
- Closing The Gap – track by track
- Back to Jazz – In Hoagland 1981 with Annie Ross and Hoagy Carmichael
- Hoagy Carmichael (1900–1981)
- Annie Ross (b. 1930)
- In Hoagland 1981 – track by track
- The Heroes album

7: Dynamite Brass & Dynamite Friends – From Stockholm to Sydney

- In Goodmansland – Fame combines his love of Sweden and Big Bands
- In Goodmansland – track by track:
- “Saturday Night Fish Fry” – Party Flames in the New Romantic 1980s
- My Favourite Songs – track by track
- Georgie Fame’s Brother-in-Charms – Steve Gray
- Singer The Musical – Fame’s fab lyrics & Steve Gray’s great melodies
- Singer The Musical – track by track
- My Second Home – More Musical Adventures in Sweden
- Georgie Fame, Lena Ericsson, Lasse Samuelsson – track by track
- “New York Afternoon” – A new sound door opens
- The Aussie Blue Flames – Touring and recording “down under”
- No Worries – track by track
- After Hoagland and Goodmansland – Bakerland: A Portrait of Chet
- A Portrait of Chet – Georgie Fame/Ellen Helmus Sextet, track by track

8: The longest-serving band in Fame history: The Vintage 1990 Blue Flames

- Guy Barker – “Bugler” Extraordinaire
- Alan Skidmore – still in the Blue Flames
- “Aaaaaaa-Anthony Kerr” – Wizard on the Vibraphone
- James and Tristan Powell join their father’s band
- “Brother Tristan on guitar”
- “Brother James on the drums”
- “Working For The Van” – The Van Morrison Connection
- Cool Gat Blues – The first Ben Sidran directed album

9: The Go Jazz Years – “The Blues And Him”

- Cool Cat Blues – Track by Track
- Go Jazz All-Stars Live in Japan – A “pitch black studio” and enthusiastic crowds
- Georgie On My Mind – Live In Zagreb hot on the heels of Japan
- The Blues And Me – The second Ben Sidran produced album