Table of Contents

List of Figures: 9
List of Tables: 9
List of Abbreviations: 11

1 Introduction: 15
   1.1 The relevance of agricultural finance for increasing smallholder farmers' productivity: 15
   1.2 Purpose and outline of the paper: 17
   1.3 Methodology: 19

2 Terminology and historical background of agricultural finance for smallholder farmers: 23
   2.1 Terminology: 23
      2.1.1 Microfinance, rural finance, and agricultural finance: 23
      2.1.2 Smallholder farmers: definition and financial needs: 27
   2.2 The history of agricultural finance for smallholder farmers: 31
      2.2.1 Old paradigm: subsidized agricultural credit: 31
      2.2.2 Emergence of a new paradigm: 34
      2.2.3 Linking the new paradigm and agricultural finance for smallholder farmers: 35

3 Risks and costs of agricultural lending for smallholder farmers: 37
   3.1 (Credit) risks specific to agricultural lending for smallholder farmers: 37
   3.2 Costs specific to agricultural lending for smallholder farmers: 42

4 Traditional microfinance risk and cost management approaches: 45
   do they work for smallholder farmers?: 45
   4.1 Loan product design for risk mitigation in traditional microfinance: 46
   4.2 Loan assessment and monitoring for risk mitigation in traditional microfinance: 52
   4.3 Reducing transaction costs in traditional microfinance: 57

5 Interim conclusion: 59
Table of Contents

6 Overview of interviewed MFIs and their agricultural lending strategies.... 61
   6.1 Indicators and agricultural loan products of interviewed MFIs .......... 61
   6.2 Commercial banks ............................................................................. 65
   6.3 Microfinance companies .................................................................... 68
   6.4 Membership-based financial institutions ........................................... 72

7 Risk mitigation through adapted loan products and lending procedures... 79
   7.1 Loan features of agricultural production loans ................................. 79
       7.1.2 Discussion of interest rates .......................................................... 94
   7.2 Risk management through adapted lending procedures .................... 106

8 Further strategies to reduce risks and transaction costs in agricultural lending to smallholder farmers.......................................... 117
   8.1 Qualified staff with agricultural backgrounds .................................... 117
   8.2 Value chain finance .......................................................................... 119
   8.3 Cooperation with external actors ....................................................... 125
   8.4 Cost-effective outreach to smallholder farmers ................................. 127

9 Conclusion ............................................................................................... 131

Bibliography ............................................................................................. 135

Annex ........................................................................................................ 143