TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments xi
Preface xv
External Approach xx
Near-sighted Approach xxi
“Deficit” Approach xxii
De-contextualized Approach xxiv
“One Leaf = The Whole Forest” Approach xxiv

Part I: Foundation of the Mutual Value Theory

Chapter 1. Introduction 3
Review of Learning Theories 4
Discovery of the Mutual Value Theory 7
Overview of the Mutual Value Theory 10

Chapter 2. Value 17
Meaning of Value 17
Level 0: To Deny 18
Level 1: To Accept 18
Level 2: To Appreciate 32
| Situation 3: Authenticity and Powerfulness Unbalanced | 119 |
| Situation 4: Authenticity and Powerfulness Well Balanced | 121 |

Part II: Four Types of Values

Chapter 5. Self-value
- Meaning of Self-value | 125
- Factors That Affect Self-value | 129
- Importance of Self-value | 137
- Factors That Threaten Self-value | 142
- Strategies to Increase Self-value | 148

Chapter 6. Perceived Self-value
- Importance of Perceived Self-value | 153
  - Perceived Self-value and Identity | 154
  - Perceived Self-value and Behavior | 157
  - Perceived Self-value and Learning | 160
  - Perceived Self-value and Happiness | 161
- Factors That Affect Perceived Self-value | 163
  - Factor 1: Relationship | 163
  - Factor 2: Age | 166
  - Factor 3: Self-value | 167
  - Factor 4: Cultural or Social Value | 168

Chapter 7. Other-value
- Meaning of Other-value | 171
- Importance of Other-value | 173
  - Other-value and Happiness | 174
  - Other-value and Motivation | 176
  - Other-value and Open-mindedness | 181
  - Other-value and Behavior | 183
- Teacher Other-value for Students | 185
- Student Other-value for Peers | 186
- Factors That Affect Other-value | 187
  - Factor 1: Individual Value System | 188
  - Factor 2: Self-value | 190
  - Factor 3: Individual Social and Psychological Needs | 193
  - Factor 4: Individual Temperament or Personality | 194
  - Factor 5: Influence of the Role Model | 195
  - Factor 6: Knowledge of the Other | 198