Contents

Introduction ................................................. 1
Stefan MACHURA, Anne HELLUM and Knut PAPENDORF

Ehrlich’s Legacy

Beyond “Living Law”: Eugen Ehrlich’s General Theory of Law. ........................................ 17
Klaus A. ZIEGERT

Eugen Ehrlich’s Legacy in Contemporary German Sociology of Law. ......................................... 39
Stefan MACHURA

‘Living Law’ as a Political and Analytical Concept. ....................................................... 69
Franz and Keebet VON BENDA-BECKMANN

Ehrlich in Scandinavia

Legal Pluralist Perspectives in Scandinavian and African Women’s Law. ............................ 95
Anne HELLUM

A Voyage of Discovery: Eugen Ehrlich in Scandinavia. .................................................. 115
Knut PAPENDORF

Sociology of Law at ‘the Edge of Empires and Eras’ – Reflections on Lawyers and Living Law 65 Years after the Legal Expedition to Greenland. ........................................... 133
Hanne PETERSEN
Ehrlich’s Concept Applied to Non-Western Countries

Organizing a Community: The “Living Law” of the Don Cossacks ......................................................... 157
Olga LITVINOV and Stefan MACHURA

Between the Power of the State and the Guardianship of the Church: Orthodox Copts Seeking Divorce ........ 179
Monika LINDBEKK

Rethinking Corruption in Post-Soviet Uzbekistan: Ethnography of “Living Law” ......................................... 209
Rustamjon URINBOYEV and Måns SVENSSON

Eugen Ehrlich’s Passion

Ehrlich’s Passion: Bukovina Traditional Textiles .......... 241
Olga LITVINOV

Contributors ................................................................. 255