Table of Contents

Lord Mayor Florian Hartmann
Publisher's Foreword ............................................................... 7

Hans-Günter Richardi
Dachau – An Introduction to the Town ........................................ 9

Hans-Günter Richardi
Dachau in the Twentieth Century ............................................. 19

Construction of the Dachau Royal Gunpowder and Munitions Factory .......... 21
Dachau Impoverished .................................................................. 23
The Red Army in Dachau .............................................................. 25
The Plight of Dachau ................................................................. 34
The Broad Political Spectrum .......................................................... 36
The German League for the Abolition of Interest Slavery ...................... 41
The Communist Front ................................................................. 47
‘Red Dachau’ .............................................................................. 52
The Social Democratic Alliance ..................................................... 56
Father Muhler’s Battle with the National Socialists ............................. 58
Final Resistance .......................................................................... 61
The Ballot: a Futile Attempt at Defense .......................................... 62
The End of the Weimar Republic in Dachau ....................................... 64
The Hunt for Dachau’s Communists ............................................... 71
The Founding of Dachau Concentration Camp .................................... 74
The National Socialists Take Town Hall by Storm ............................ 83
The SS Arrives at Dachau Concentration Camp .................................. 85
Dachau Concentration Camp as a Training Grounds for Violence .......... 89
Dachau Citizens as Concentration Camp Inmates ................................ 97
The Market Town Becomes a City .................................................. 104
Dachau as a Garrison and SS Training Center ................................... 109
The SS Business Group on the Amper River ..................................... 116
Rebuilding the Concentration Camp ................................................ 123
The ‘Night of Broken Glass’ in Dachau ............................................ 128
The Dachau Townspeople and the SS ............................................ 132
Prisoners in the Town .................................................................. 137
The People of Dachau Offer Their Assistance ..................................... 141
The Dachau Uprising ................................................................. 149
The Liberation of the Town and the Camp ....................................... 158
Three Contemporary Historical Walking Tours through Dachau

Hans-Günter Richardi, Eleonore Philipp and Monika Lücking

- Walking Tour 1 through the Upper Town

Hans-Günter Richardi and Eleonore Philipp

- Walking Tour 2 through the Lower Town

Hans-Günter Richardi

- Walking Tour 3 through the Dachau Memorial Site

Hans-Günter Richardi

- Places of Historical Interest in the Environs of the Dachau Memorial Site

Bibliography

Index of Names

Photographic Credits

Glossary

Appendix: Comparative Ranks and Organizations