Table of Contents

Abbreviations ........................................................................................................................................................................ XVII
Table of Cases ........................................................................................................................................................................ XIX

Introduction and Methodology .................................................................................................................................................... 1

Part I Private Equity Buyouts and Creditor Protection ............................................................................................................. 7

Chapter I The Phenomenon: Private Equity Buyouts .................................................................................................................. 9

I. The Investment Decision .......................................................................................................................................................... 11
II. Main Investment Models of Private Equity Funds .................................................................................................................. 12
   1. Acquisition of a Target Company ........................................................................................................................................... 12
   2. Measures During the Investment ........................................................................................................................................... 13
   3. Exit from the Investment ......................................................................................................................................................... 14
III. Differentiating Venture Capital and PE Investments ........................................................................................................... 15
IV. Financing a Takeover with Leverage Effect ........................................................................................................................ 17
   1. The Leverage Effect ............................................................................................................................................................... 17
   2. Leveraged Buyout as a Transaction Model .......................................................................................................................... 20
   3. Leveraged Recapitalisations: Creating Leverage Effect Before Exit ................................................................................... 23

Chapter II Creditor Protection ..................................................................................................................................................... 26

I. Increase of Debt and Probability of Insolvency ........................................................................................................................ 27
II. Creditor Protection with Legal Capital Rules in a Nutshell .................................................................................................. 29
   1. General Framework and Discussions about the Legal Capital System .................................................................................. 29
      a) EU Level – Brief History and Recent Developments ........................................................................................................... 32
         (i) Recent Legislative Developments .................................................................................................................................. 32
         (ii) Judicial Developments and National Systems ................................................................................................................... 34
      b) Main Critiques of the Continental European Legal Capital System ................................................................................ 36
   2. Minimum Capital ...................................................................................................................................................................... 41
   3. Capital Maintenance ................................................................................................................................................................. 42
      a) Terminology ............................................................................................................................................................................. 42
      b) The Essence of Capital Maintenance ................................................................................................................................ 44
   4. Alternative Approaches for Creditor Protection in a Nutshell ............................................................................................ 50
Part II Creditor Protection with Company Law

Chapter I Introduction and Method

Chapter II LBO Based on Basic Financial Assistance Model

I. Financial Assistance – basically
II. Reasons for a Financial Assistance Ban
III. Target as a UK public company
   1. Forms of Unlawful Financial Assistance Covered by the Companies Act 2006
   5. Civil Consequences of Unlawful Financial Assistance
IV. Target as a UK Private Company
   1. Private Limited Companies, LBOs, capital maintenance and unlawful distributions
      a) Distributions to Shareholders
         (i) Directors’ Liability for Unlawful Distributions
         (ii) Shareholders’ Liability for Unlawful Distributions
      b) Concealed Distributions
      c) Gratuitous Dispositions
      d) Gateway for English private companies: Capital reduction supported by a solvency statement from directors
   2. Directors’ Duties in Troubled Times
      a) Fraudulent Trading
      b) Wrongful Trading
V. Target as a Germany Joint Stock Company (AG)
   1. Prohibited Financial Assistance Acts in German Stock Corporations Law
a) Statutory Examples of Prohibited Financial Assistance Acts ........................................... 110
b) The Relation of the Financial Assistance Ban and the Rule on Distributions ...................... 112
c) Other Acts Caught by the Financial Assistance Ban ...................................................... 115
2. Other Statutory Conditions of the Financial Assistance Ban to Catch .................................. 123
3. Exceptions to the Financial Assistance Ban in Germany .................................................. 125
4. Gateway for German Group of Companies (Konzern) ................................................... 126
5. Civil Consequences of Unlawful Financial Assistance .................................................... 128
6. The Special Case of § 71a (2) AktG: Acquisition of Own Shares Through Agents .............. 131
7. Opinion About the Scope of the German Financial Assistance Rule Under Consideration of English and EU Law ........................................................................................................... 132
8. Directors’ Liability in German Public Companies .............................................................. 137
VI. Target As a German Private Limited Company (GmbH) .................................................. 140
1. Capital Maintenance Regime for Private Limited Companies in General ............................... 140
2. The Current Regime After the MoMiG Amendments and Exceptions of the Ban on Return of Capital to Shareholders ................................................................. 143
   a) Upstream Loans ............................................................................................................. 145
   b) Upstream Security ........................................................................................................ 147
   c) Civil Consequences and Directors’ Position .................................................................... 151
   d) Shareholder Loans ....................................................................................................... 152
3. Directors’ and Shareholders’ Liability (Piercing the Corporate Veil) in Leveraged Buyouts as a Creditor Protection Tool ................................................................. 153
   a) Shareholders’ Liability Based on Piercing the Corporate Veil Doctrine (Durchgriffshaftung) ............................................................................................................................ 154
   b) Shareholders’ Liability for Causing the Insolvency of the Company (Existenzvernichtungshaftung) ............................................................................................................. 155
   c) Directors’ Liability ........................................................................................................ 158
(i) Liability for Return of Capital to Shareholders ...... 158
(ii) Liability for Actions Causing the Insolvent Liquidation of the Company After It Is Already Over-indebted (Überschuldung – balance sheet insolvency) or Unable to Pay Its Due Debts/ILLiquidity (Zahlungsunfähigkeit – cash flow insolvency) ........................................ 159
(iii) Liability for Delaying the Insolvency Filing (Insolvenzverschleppungshaftung) ............................ 161

4. Comparison of the Insolvenzverschleppungshaftung with the English Wrongful Trading Regime ................. 164

VII. Target As a Turkish Joint Stock Company (Anonim Şirket) ..................................................................... 168

1. General Considerations and a Short Market Overview ...... 168

2. Interpretation of the Financial Assistance Rule Under Consideration of Capital Maintenance Rules and Developing a De Lege Ferenda Approach ................................... 175

   a) Capital Maintenance Rules in General ....................... 176

   b) The Special Case of Transactions with Shareholders and Unlawful Distributions .................................. 182

   c) Financial Assistance Acts Explicitly Caught by the Rule ........................................................................... 188

   d) Other Acts Caught by the Ban in Turkish Law .......... 189

      (i) General .................................................................. 189

      (ii) Payment of Subsidies and Assumption of Debt .... 191

      (iii) Break-up Fees and Junk Bonds ............................. 193

      (iv) Financial Assistance Given Indirectly Through Third Party Involvement ............................................. 194

      (v) Financial Assistance Given by Subsidiaries of Target Companies ....................................................... 195

   e) Exceptions of the Financial Assistance Rule .......... 197

   f) Is There actually an Exception for Group Companies? ................................................................................. 199

   g) The Civil Consequence of Acting in Violation of the Financial Assistance Rule ........................................ 201

3. Directors' Liability ........................................................................................................ 203

   a) General Duties .................................................................. 204

   b) Directors' Dealings with the Company ...................... 206

   c) Special Cases of Adverse Balance and Over-indebtedness ................................................................. 208
d) Management Bonuses and their Return in Case of Insolvency .............................................................. 213

VIII. Target Company is a Turkish Limited Liability Company
          (Limited Şirket/Ltd.) .............................................................. 214
   1. The System Based on Capital Maintenance and Upstream Loans and Securities .............................................. 214
      a) Upstream Loans .................................................................. 217
      b) Upstream Security ................................................................. 218
   2. Directors’ Liability ................................................................. 219
   3. Liability for Public Receivables ............................................ 220

IX. Summary and Outlook ............................................................. 221

Chapter III Merger of the Target Company with the Acquisition Vehicle ......................................................... 235

I. Mergers in Germany ................................................................. 236
   1. Upstream Merger .................................................................. 238
      a) General Application of Upstream Merger in Acquisition Finance .......................................................... 238
      b) Future of the Claims of Third Parties on the Shares of a Transferor Legal Entity ........................................... 240
      c) Value Allocation in the Accounts of a Transferee Entity and the Effects on Capital Maintenance ...................... 241
      d) Application of the Financial Assistance Rule ............................................................................. 243
      e) Creditors’ Right to Request Security ................................................................................... 244
   2. Downstream Merger ................................................................ 245
      a) General Application of a Downstream Merger in Acquisition Finance .......................................................... 245
      b) Future of Claims of Third Parties on the Shares of the Transferor Legal Entity .............................................. 245
      c) Value Allocation in the Accounts of the Transferee Entity and the Effects on Capital Maintenance ...................... 246
      d) Application of the Financial Assistance Rule ............................................................................. 248
      e) Merger under Commercial Law (Anwachsungsmodell) ........................................................................ 251

II. Mergers in England ................................................................. 254
   1. Merger in a Scheme of Arrangement ........................................ 255
   2. Additional Requirements for Public Companies ................... 256
   3. Merger Rules under the Companies Regulation 2007 ............ 257
   4. Company Reorganisation Under the Insolvency Act .............. 259

III. Cross-border Mergers in Europe ........................................... 261

IV. Mergers in Turkey ................................................................... 263

XIII
1. The General Legal Framework ...................................................... 263
2. Process of a Merger and Relevant Institutional
   Creditor Protection Mechanisms ............................................. 265
3. Simplified Merger of Companies with Shareholders’ Limited Liability ............................................. 268
4. Merger Under Extraordinary Conditions .................................... 269
   a) Merger of a Company in Liquidation .................................... 269
   b) Merger in case of adverse balance or over-indebtedness ............................................................ 270
5. Creditors’ Right to Request Security .......................................... 271
7. Future of Claims of Third Parties on the Shares of the Transferor Legal Entity ....................................................... 278
8. Merger Under Commercial Law
   (Anwachungsmodell) in Turkish Law? ..................................... 281
V. Merger by Formation of a Societas Europaea (SE) ....................... 282
VI. Summary and Outlook ............................................................. 285

Chapter IV Bypassing Restrictive National Laws by Engaging
Foreign Company Forms ........................................................... 292

Chapter V Leveraged Recapitalisations ......................................... 295

I. Leveraged Recapitalisations in Germany .................................... 297
   1. Dividend Recapitalisation in Germany .................................... 301
      a) German Joint Stock Companies (AG) ............................... 302
         (i) Capital Maintenance and the Financial Assistance Rule ........................................... 302
         (ii) Directors’ Liability for Causing a Company’s Insolvency ................................................................. 307
      b) German Private Limited Companies (GmbH) ....................... 308
      c) Upstream Merger Resulting in a Capital Reduction ............ 309
   2. Leveraged Recapitalisation by Way of Transactions with Shareholders .......................................... 311

II. Leveraged Recapitalisations in England ................................... 316
   1. Distributions in General ..................................................... 319
   2. Additional Requirements for Public Companies ..................... 319
   3. Non-cash Distributions ..................................................... 321
   4. Unlawful Distributions ..................................................... 322
   5. Directors’ Liability ........................................................... 322
   6. Intra-group Dividends ....................................................... 323

III. Leveraged Recapitalisations in Turkey .................................... 325
   1. Dividend Recapitalisation .................................................. 325

XIV
Part III Creditor Protection Under Insolvency Law: Transaction Avoidance

Chapter I Transaction Avoidance in German Law

I. Introduction and Recent Developments

II. LBO Structures

1. Gratuitous Benefits (Schenkungsanfechtung)
   a) The Loan Model
   b) The Security Model

2. Wilful Disadvantage (Vorsatzanfechtung)
   a) Transaction Avoidance According to § 133(1) InsO
   b) Transaction Avoidance According to § 133(2) InsO

3. The Application of Transaction Avoidance Rules to Post-Acquisition Mergers

III. Leveraged Recapitalisations

1. Dividend Recapitalisation
2. Upstream Merger Combined with Capital Reduction

Chapter II Transaction Avoidance in English Law

I. Transactions at an Undervalue

1. General Scope
2. The Relevant Time
3. The Company’s State of Insolvency
4. The Relation to Avoidance of Transactions Defrauding Creditors

5. The Special Case of Guarantees
6. Avoidance of Floating Charges

II. Preferences

1. The Desire to Prefer
2. The Preferred Person
3. Possible Application to LBOs