Contents

A note on this new edition 7

Foreword 9

1. New Methods of Language Teaching 13

2. Rudolf Steiner's Ideas on Language 17
   2.1 Anthroposophy, philosophy, anthropology 17
   2.2 Approaching the 'reality' of language 20
   2.3 The history of language 27
   2.4 The physiology of language 29

3. The Aims of Language Teaching in Waldorf Schools 33

5. Background Considerations 40
   5.1 The first three seven-year phases of life 40
   5.2 Age 0–7: Language from sense perception and movement 43
   5.3 Age 7–14: Language as living rhythm 51
   5.4 Age 14–21: Individualised language 54
   5.5 Language and its sense organ 55
   5.6 Remembering and forgetting 60
   5.7 Living concepts and dead concepts 66
   5.8 Anticipatory learning 70