Contents

Preface, Moccia, Luigi, University Roma Tre, Rome, Italy; Woesler, Martin, University of Applied Languages, Munich, Germany ................................................................. 15

Culture I: High Civilizations and their Inspirative and Stimulative Encounters

► CULTURE/SOCIETY What Chinese and Europeans can learn from each other, Woesler, Martin, University of Applied Languages, Munich, Germany ......................................................... 17

► CULTURE/INTEGRATION Education to 'Inter-Cultural Citizenship:' A European Perspective to Global Citizenship, Moccia, Luigi, University Roma Tre, Rome ............................................................. 41

► LANGUAGE Managing the Diversity: Language Policy and Practice in China and Ukraine, Hobova, Yevheniia, A.Krymsky Institute of Oriental Studies, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine....................................................... 63
Culture II: Knowledge Formation and Historical Encounters in Eurasia

- ARTISTS Chinese artists outside China during the Early Modern Period: possibilities as heritage today, Luengo, Pedro, University of Sevilla/Spain ................................................................. 81

- HISTORY Turkey-China Relations: History and Future Prospects, Altun, Sirma, Middleeast Technical University Ankara, Turkey ........................................................................................................ 101

- HISTORY/KNOWLEDGE Printing and Book Culture in Pre-Modern China: Rethinking the Chinese Experience with European Comparisons, Lin, Hang, University of Hamburg, Germany ........................................................................................................ 117

- SOCIETY/LITERATURE: Stereotypes about China: the Italian literature of the 20th Century, Lombardi, Rosa, University Roma Tre ........................................................................................................ 153

Society I: Different approaches to stigma, mortality, law and justice

- SOCIETY/STIGMA Dealing with stigma – China and Europe cross-cultural study, Ożegalska-Łukasik, Natalia,
Institute of Sociology, Jagiellonian University, Poland (with Anna Prokop) .................................................. 163

► MORTALITY "Being- towards- death": a comparative study on attitudes towards mortality in Europe and in China, Fan, Jiani, University of Sorbonne-Nouvelle-Paris III, France ............ 183

► LAW Will Chinese legal culture constrain its corporate governance-related laws?, Bu, Qingxiu University of Sussex/Great Britain .......................................................... 207

► LAW Legal Aspects of EU-China Trade, Messmann, Stefan, Central European University, Budapest/Hungary ......................... 237

Society II: China's efforts to modernization and social welfare

► MODERNIZATION/ECONOMICS China's Pathway of Modernization, Krause, Reuß-Markus, Goethe University, Frankfurt, Germany................................................. 251

► SOCIAL WELFARE Towards a unit 'Social China': Citizenship in China after One Decade of Social Policy Development and Implications of European Social Model, Wen, Zhuoyi, The City University of Hong Kong, China ............ 273
Economy I: Hard power: Military and Energy

► MILITARY China-EU, from military cooperation to mutual understanding, Grgić, Mladen, University of Montenegro ........ 293

► ECONOMY Powering the Future: China and Europe’s Alternative Energy Security, Quartermain, Thomas Oxford University, Great Britain .................................................. 311

► ECONOMY Divide et Impera: Chinese growing influence in Europe, Chiriu, Andrea, University of Cagliari, Italy ....................... 337

Economy II: Lessons to Learn from Each Other - New Contents of Cadre Education, taxation and life standards

► ECONOMY/TAXES The Introduction of Direct Taxes and the European Model in Twentieth-Century China, Xu, Xiaoqun, Christopher Newport University, USA ............................................. 367

► ECONOMY/POLITICS China’s Leadership Transition and Its Implication for China-EU Relations, Jiang, Shixue, Beijing Academy of Social Sciences, Peking, China ................................................... 391

► ECONOMY/ECOLOGY A Study on Leadership Training in Four Types of Training Institutions, Ritirc, Julia, University Vienna, Austria ................................................................. 407
Contents

► MEDIA The Uniqueness of the Media System in China and its Internal Mechanics, Luo, Austin Jun, Beijing Normal University, Peking, China ................................................. 439

► ECONOMY Economic Growth and Quality of Life: What can the Europeans and the Chinese learn from each other?, Yang, Keming, University of Durham, Great Britain ............................ 465

Biographical Information........................................................................................................... 483

Index........................................................................................................................................ 489