Contents

08 Preface

Part One: How It All Began (1885 to 1989)
12 Chapter 01 In the Beginning Were the Dyes
24 Chapter 02 Business Pioneers in China
39 Chapter 03 Revolution in the Rice Field
49 Chapter 04 Between Shanghai and Chongqing
80 Chapter 05 A New Era
93 Chapter 06 Phoenix from the Ashes

Part Two: Development and Expansion (1990 to 2015)
110 Chapter 07 The Master Plan on a Napkin
145 Chapter 08 A Negotiation Marathon Begins
162 Chapter 09 Lion Dance and Children’s Choirs
172 Chapter 10 Visions Turn Into Investments
184 Chapter 11 Presence and Commitment
193 Chapter 12 The Red Days of Nanjing
213 Chapter 13 Dragon Boat Races and Sounds of Air Harps
229 Chapter 14 Germany and China – A Testing Time Strengthens the Bond
245 Chapter 15 Expansion and Efficiency
262 Chapter 16 What Does the Future Hold for the World?

Part Three: Maker and Markets
324 “BASF and Me”: Ten Very Personal Stories from China
344 "Innovation Is the Bridge Between Our Two Countries": Martin Brudermüller in Conversation with Shi Mingde

Part Four: Appendix
362 Sources and Bibliography
374 Index of Persons