Contents

Preface and acknowledgements .......................................................................................... V

List of figures ........................................................................................................................ IX
List of tables ........................................................................................................................ XI
List of abbreviations ........................................................................................................... XII

Part I: Urban governance in post-apartheid cities in context ........................................ 1
1 An introduction to the governing of post-apartheid cities ......................................... 3
Christoph Haferburg and Marie Huchzermeier

2 The external and internal context for post-apartheid urban governance .................. 15
Alison Todes

Part II: City visions and urban interventions: engagements of the state ....................... 37
3 A critical overview of the instruments for urban transformation in South Africa ... 39
Mfaniseni F. Sihlongonyane

4 The agonistic state: metropolitan government responses to city strife post-1994 .... 61
Li Pernegger

5 Transforming the post-apartheid city through Bus Rapid Transit ............................. 79
Astrid Wood

Part III: The fragile base of the city: currents and dynamics at community level .......... 99
6 Contours of urban community politics: learning from Johannesburg ...................... 101
Obvious Katsaura

7 Reconceptualising xenophobia, urban governance and inclusion: the case of Khutsong ............................................................................................................. 117
Joshua Kirshner

8 Undoing the silencing of the present: the imperative to recognise the shack settlement as a site of politics ................................................................. 135
Richard Pithouse

9 Entangled or empowered? Networks of grassroots organisations and NGOs in housing and human settlement processes ............................................. 155
Astrid Ley

http://d-nb.info/1064551270
Part IV: Private sector: gaining weight ................................................................. 177

10 City of layers: the making and shaping of affluent Johannesburg after apartheid ........................................................................................................ 179
    Martin J. Murray

11 The private security industry in urban management ...................................... 197
    Tessa Diphoorn

12 Johannesburg’s Bad Buildings Programme: the World Class City hegemony at work? ............................................................................................................. 211
    Margot Rubin

13 Social entrepreneurship and corporate social responsibility in Johannesburg’s inner city housing and revitalisation strategies .................................................................. 231
    Elisabeth Peyroux

14 The local governance dynamics of international accolades: Cape Town’s designation as World Design Capital 2014 ................................................................. 251
    Laura Wenz

Part V: Governing through place and space ....................................................... 271

15 Post-World Cup effects and local regeneration strategies in Johannesburg and eThekwini .......................................................... 273
    Christoph Haferburg, Matthias Fleischer, Maximilian Fuhrmann and Fred Krüger

16 The sugarcane frontier: governing the production of gated space in KwaZulu-Natal ................................................................. 295
    Richard Ballard and Gareth A. Jones

17 Women and urban governance: the disjuncture between policy and everyday experiences in intimate spaces ........................................ 313
    Kira Erwin, Orli Bass and Jennifer Houghton

Contributors ................................................................. 327
Index ................................................................. 331