Contents

Volume I

Foreword by Loden Sherab Dagyap Rinpoche 13
Preface 14
Introduction 16

The Central Tibetan Province of Ü – A definition of its historical geography 23

1 Lhasa and Its Historical Monuments

1 Lhasa through the ages – An outline of its sacred and secular art and architecture 26
2 Barkor and Lingkor – The way of the pilgrims 39
3 Jokhang and Tsuglagkhang – The Diamond Throne of Tibet 45
   3.1 History and architecture – From Jokhang to Tsuglagkhang 45
   3.2 The early sculptural decoration 60
   3.3 Wall-paintings, 11th to 20th century 64
   3.4 The Jowo sanctum 68
   3.5 Important images and cultural relics at the Jokhang 77
4 Ramoche Temple – The “Smaller Jokhang” 89
5 The Potala Palace – Sacred and secular residence of the Dalai Lamas 97
   5.1 The Potala before the Potala Palace, 7th to 16th century – History, buildings, images 97
   5.2 The Potala Palace of the Dalai Lamas, 17th to 20th century 106
      5.2.1 The White Palace – Audience halls and private rooms 106
      5.2.2 The Red Palace – Sanctuaries and mausoleums 110
      5.2.3 Divine palace and government fortress – The architecture of the Tibetan theocracy 133
   5.3 The Shol quarter – The downtown Potala village 135
6 Lukhang – The shrine in the Naga Kings’ Lake 144
7 Chagpo Ri – Cave sanctuary and Temple of Medicine 148
   7.1 Dragba Lu cave sanctuary 148
   7.2 Mentsikhang – The sacred medical college 150
8 Norbu Lingka – Summer Palace of the Dalai Lamas 155
   8.1 Kelsang Podrang – Palace of the Seventh Dalai Lama 157
   8.2 Chensel Podrang – Palace of the Thirteenth Dalai Lama 158
   8.3 Takten Migyur Podrang – Palace of the Fourteenth Dalai Lama 161
9 Monasteries and temples in Lhasa 168
   9.1 Meru Nyingpa – An ancient power-place reconstructed 168
   9.2 Pabongka monastery – From tower to temple 171
   9.3 Gyume – The Lower Tantric College for esoteric teachings 172
   9.4 The Four “Regency Monasteries” – Tengye Ling, Künde Ling, Tsemön Ling, Shide Ling 173
      9.4.1 Tengye Ling – Residence of the Demo Tulkus 173
      9.4.2 Künde Ling – “Where all lived peacefully” 174
      9.4.3 Tsemön Ling – A Regent Monastery “for long life” 174
      9.4.4 Shide Ling – Destruction and reconstruction of a landmark building 175
10 The Tibet Museum – Selected cultural relics 177
II The "Three Great Seats" of Learning: Ganden, Drepung, Sera Administration and Architecture

Introduction 208

1 Ganden – The first monastery of the Gelugpa School 210
2 Drepung – Origin and power-place of the Tibetan theocracy 218
   2.1 Tsuglagkhang – The main assembly hall 220
   2.3 The four college temples: Ngagpa, Loseling, Gomang, Deyang 224
   2.3 The Ganden Palace – Residence of the Gelugpa hierarchs and early Dalai Lamas 228
3 Nechung – The monastic residence of Tibet’s State Oracle 229
4 Sera – The principal academy for Mahayana studies 235
   4.1 Ngagpa – The Tantric Faculty 236
   4.2 Sera Me College 238
   4.3 Sera Je College 239
   4.4 Tsuglagkhang – The main assembly hall 241

III Monuments of the Kyi Chu Valley and Beyond

1 Nyethang Dölma Lhakhang – In memory of Atisha 258
2 Tsel Gungthang monastery – A religio-political power-place of the Mongol-Tibetan period 268
3 The Drag Yerpa hermitages – Meditation and retreat in a sacred landscape 271
4 Gyama Trikhang – The legendary birthplace of King Songtsen Gampo 273
5 Katsel Monastery – A "Border-taming Temple" of the Lhasa Mandala 275
6 Zhayi Lhakhang – Doring pillars and royal edicts of Tibet’s early history 276
7 Drigung Thil monastery – A treasure house of Tibetan art 277
8 Radeng monastery – The origins of the Kadampa school 281
9 Taglung monastery - The Golden Age of early Tibetan art 287
10 Langtang and Nalendra – Sacred sites in the Phenpo Valley 290

IV Tshurphu Monastery – The Seat of the Karmapa Lamas

1 The Seat of the Karmapa Lamas 300

V Historical Sites in the Yarlung Valley

1 From myth to history – Divine rulers and early monuments 312
2 The Royal Necropolis at Chongye – From divine kingship to Buddhist faith 314
3 Early Sculptures and decorative arts of the royal dynastic period 319
4 Chongye Dzong and beyond 323
5 Yumbu Lakhar – Royal fortress and sacred shrine 325
6 Tradrug monastery – The earliest temple of Tibet 327
7 Ancient Tsetang – A Tibetan power-place during the 14th and 15th centuries 335
VI Monuments of the Tsangpo Valley

1 Chagzam Chuwo Ri – The iron-chain bridge at the Tsangpo-Kyi Chu confluence 344
2 Gongkar Dzong and Gongkar Chöde monastery 346
3 Dorje Drag – The Vajra Rock monastery 351
4 Monuments of the Dranang Valley
   4.1 Drathang Temple – A treasure house of Tibetan painting 353
   4.2 Jampa Ling – Once Tibet’s largest kumbum chörten 364
   4.3 The early tombs of Serkhung 365
5 Mindröl Ling – Nyingma stronghold in Central Tibet 366
6 Namse Ling Manor House – An urban palace in the countryside 374
7 Samye – Architectural universe and the foundation site of Tibetan monasticism 377
   7.1 Samye Chökhor – A three-dimensional imago mundi of Indo-Tibetan Buddhism 377
   7.2 Khamsum Zankhang Ling 397
   7.3 Samye Chimpu – Hermitages and holy caves 399
8 Ön Keru Lhakhang – The earliest monumental statues in Tibet 400
9 Densa Thil – The origins of the Kagyü School 405

VII Lhodrag – Temples and Towers in the South of Central Tibet

1 Riteng and Drongkar – Unknown temples between Yarlung and Lhodrag 424
2 Mawochok – The Treasure-Finder’s gompa 425
3 Lhodrag Khomting Lhakhang 426
4 Lhodrag Kharchu monastery 427
5 Sekhar Guthog – Mila Repa’s Tower 429
6 Lhodrag Lhalung monastery 438
7 The Lhodrag rock inscriptions 441
8 Watchtowers 443

VIII Dagpo and Kongpo – The “Far East” of the Central Regions

Introduction 448

1 Chökhor Gyel – The Oracle Lake’s monastery 449
2 Daglha Gampo – A Kagyüpa power-place 452
3 Lhagyari Palace – Manor house and dzong of the “Royal Family of God” 453
4 Leb Ri – The princely necropolis 454
5 Early rock inscriptions and edict pillars 458
6 Bön and Buddhist sites at Sacred Mount Bön Ri 461
7 The towers of Kongpo 465

IX Sacred Sites Around the Yamdrog Lake

1 Nakartse Dzong 472
2 Samding monastery – Where female monks reincarnated 473
3 Yamdrog Taglung monastery 476
Volume II

The Southern Tibetan Province of Tsang –
A definition of its historical geography 491

X Ralung – Principal Seat of the Drugpa Kagyüpa 494

XI Gyantse and its Monastic City

Historical Introduction 498

1 Gyantse Dzong and the beginnings of Tibetan fortress architecture 501
   1.1 The palace temple Sampel Rinpoche Ling 502

2 The Pelkhor Chöde monastic enclave 504
   2.1 The enclosure wall 505
   2.2 The silken images of Gyantse 505

3 The Gyantse Tsuglagkhang – The main assembly hall of the Pelkhor Chöde monastic enclave 512
   3.1 The central sanctuary 514
   3.2 Vajradhatu Lhakhang – The Five Tathagata Mandala 515
   3.3 Chögyel Lhakhang – The chapel of the Dharma Kings 516
   3.4 Gongkhang – The protector's shrine 520
   3.5 Lamdre Lhakhang – Siddhas and Sakya masters 521
   3.6 Neten Lhakhang – Sacred abode of the Sixteen Arhats 526
   3.7 Shelye Khang – The mandala shrine 528

4 The Great Kumbum Stupa 533
   4.1 History 534
   4.2 Architecture – Plan and symbolism 534
   4.3 Sculpture and painting – Iconology and iconography 537
   4.4 Style and artistic traditions 546
   4.5 A brief chronology of the Gyantse monuments 548

XII Monuments in the Nyang Chu Valley and Gyantse Region

1 Tsechen Chöde – Symbol of political power and monastic authority 554
2 Nenying monastery – The “Bodhgaya of Tibet” 556
3 Yemar Lhakhang temple at Iwang – Monumental temple art a thousand years ago 560
4 Drongtse monastery – An early Gelugpa monastery reconstructed 574
5 The Pala Family Manor House 576

XIII Shalu Monastery

1 Serkhang – The Golden Temple Mandala 582
   1.1 The monastic history of Shalu 582
   1.2 The ground-floor: Architecture and images, 11th – 14th century 587
   1.3 The entrance hall: From Gokhang to Gonkhang – The Six Chapels and the Traverse Gallery 590
   1.4 Gosum Lhakhang and Segoma Lhakhang 597
   1.5 The Great Korlam 604
1.6 The "Hidden Chapels" of the Great Korlam 608
1.7 The upper sanctuaries: Yumchenmo Lhakhang – The shrine of transcendent wisdom 609
1.8 The Yumchenmo Korlam 612
1.9 Stylistic profiles of the Shalu paintings, 11th to 14th century 614
1.10 The four Mandala Temples 616
1.10.1 The central Sukhavati Lhakhang 616
1.10.2 The northern Amitayus Lhakhang 618
1.10.3 The southern Arhat Lhakhang 619
1.10.4 The eastern Tanjur Lhakhang 622
1.11 The roof architecture of the Serkhang Mandala 625
1.12 Painted scrolls and manuscripts 629
2 Shalu Ripug Hermitage – Retreat and retirement 630

XIV Shigatse – The Heart of Tsang

1 Shigatse Dzong – A milestone of Tibetan civic architecture 640
2 The residence of the Panchen Lama 642
3 Tashilhunpo monastery 644
  3.1 The Great Sutra Hall (Tsuglagkhang) and affiliated chapels 648
  3.2 The Great Courtyard and its buildings 653
  3.3 The mausoleums of the Panchen Lamas 656
  3.4 The Great Maitreya Shrine 660
  3.5 The image galleries 662
  3.6 Ngagpa Dratsang – The Tantric College 665
  3.7 Silken images at the Great Wall-Tower 665

XV The Tsangpo Valley and Beyond

1 Rinpung Dzong and Rinpung Chöde 672
2 Bön Monasteries in Southern Tibet – The art and architecture of the Swastika tradition 674
   2.1 Menri monastery – An early centre of Bön monasticism 675
   2.2 Yungdrung Ling – The Swastika monastery 677
   2.3 “Hidden Places” of Bön in U and Tsang 679
3 Namling Chöde – The unexplored Shang Valley 682
4 Narthang – Kadampa seat and printing centre 682
5 Ngor Ewam monastery – Famous for its painted mandalas 689
6 Jonang Püntsog Ling – Taranatha’s Tushita Paradise 695
7 Jonang, the Great Kumbum Stupa – “Synthesis of the world, the essence of the Buddhas” 705
8 Chung Riwoche – The Auspicious Stupa of Many Doors and the iron-chain bridge of Thangtong Gyelpo 709
   8.1 The Great Kumbum – Architectural mandala and cosmic mountain 710
   8.2 The iron-chain bridge of Thangtong Gyelpo – The “King of the Empty Plains” 712
9 Lhatse and beyond 715
   9.1 Ancient Lhatse – History reconstructed and modern archaeology 715
   9.2 Gyang Kumbum – A ruined tashigomang chörten 717
   9.3 Ngamring Chöde – the far west of Tsang 719
10 Monasteries of the Bodongpa 719
XVI  Sakya – Monastic Fortress and Palace Temples
   1  The monastic and architectural history of Sakya 730
   2  The Sakya-Yuan system – Monastic organization and administration 733
   3  The sacred town of Sakya Densa 735
      3.1  The North Monastery Chóde Chang 735
      3.2  The South Monastery Chóde Lo – Lhakhang Chenmo, the Great Temple 738
          3.2.1  The Great Sutra Hall 740
          3.2.2  The northern Ngüldung and Changma Lhakhang 746
          3.2.3  The southern Phurba Lhakhang 749
          3.2.4  The Chenmo Lhakhang Library 753

XVII  Castles and Monasteries along the Himalayan Range
   1  Shekar Chóde and Shekar Dzong – A sacred and secular site north of Mount Everest 760
   2  Kyirong – The "Happy Valley" and its shrines 764
   3  Chumbi Valley – The gateway to the Central Regions of Tibet 768
   4  Gampa Dzong and other fortresses 771
   5  The Nyejel Chemo Caves – Early sculpture in the Indo-Tibetan borderlands 775

XVIII  The Changtang and Tibet's Pre-Buddhist Past
   1  Megalithic sites and sacred geography of ancient Zhang Zhung 780

To the Reader 786

Appendices
Chronological list of dated and datable sculptures and paintings in the Central Regions of Tibet 793

Index-Glossaries
I  Place names and geographical terms 797
II  Personal and deity names, titles and schools 813
III  Art and Architecture 829
IV  General terms 839

Sanskrit terms 847

Abbreviations 853

Bibliography I: General Literature 857
Bibliography II: Tibetan Language Sources (TLS) 873
Illustration Credits 879
Imprint 880