Contents

Acknowledgements

Mariah Larsson & Sara Johnsdotter
Introduction: At the Convergence of the Cultural and the Individual

Emma Vossen
Feminism and Sexual Fantasy: Reading and Defending Fifty Shades of Grey as Pornography

Sara Johnsdotter
Written Fantasies: A Case of Language-Induced Sexual Excitement

Deborah Blizzard
Making the Fantasy: Consumption, Relationships, and the RealDoll

Pernilla Ouis
The Politics of Sexual Fantasies: The Inversion of Sexual Fantasies in Orientalism and Occidentalism

Aje Carlbom
Blocking out Sexual Fantasies for a Fantasy of Eternal Sex: Islamist Views

Charlotte Carlström
Fantasies Becoming Practice: BDSM as Ritual

Ingrid Ryberg
Documenting Fantasy and Expanding Reality in Queer Pornography

Mariah Larsson
Fantasies Becoming Illegal: The Manga Case, Child Porn Law, and the Regulation of the Sexual Mind

Sven-Axel Månsson
Johns’ Fantasies of ‘the Prostitute’
Daniel D. Hutto
Just Faking It? Pretend Theory Meets Sexual Fantasising............................. 179

Gunnel Brander
Sexual Fantasies in Sexological Psychotherapeutic Settings.......................... 205

Contributors....................................................................................................... 221