Table of Contents

Introduction: Polish-French Relations, 1944-1989 .................................................. 11

Part I: 1944-1947 ............................................................................................................. 15

Chapter 1: Burden of the Past .......................................................... 15
Chapter 2: In the Circle of Great Politics ......................................................... 27
Chapter 3: Culture, Science, Academics, Education ........................................... 34
Chapter 4: Economic Issues ....................................................................................... 45

Part II: In the Cold War Atmosphere (1948-1953) ................................................. 51

Chapter 1: Symptoms of Deteriorated Relations (1948-1949) ....................... 51
Chapter 2: The Apogee of Conflict (1949-1952) ..................................................... 70
Chapter 3: In Search of Détente .............................................................................. 93
Chapter 4: Contacts between the PZPR and PCF ................................................. 97

Part III: 1953-1970 ...................................................................................................... 101

Chapter 1: Polish-French Relations and the “Thaw” in International Politics (1953-1956) ....................................................................................................................... 101
Chapter 2: Attempts to Revive Political Dialogue (1957-1964) ....................... 111
The Problem of the Oder-Neisse Border in Polish-French Relations ................ 112
Chapter 4: France and Polish Proposals for Disarmament ............................... 140
Chapter 5: Cooperation in the Fields of Culture, Education, Science and Technology .......................................................................................................................... 171
1. Creating the Legal-organizational Foundation for Cultural and Academic Cooperation ...................................................................................................................... 171
2. Forms of Cultural Cooperation and Related Problems ..................................... 181
   2.1. Establishing Contacts (1954-1955) ............................................................... 181
   2.2. The Development of Contacts (1956-1970) .................................................. 182
3. Academic and Scientific-Technical Cooperation ........................................... 196
4. The Issues of the French Institute in Poland and the Polish Library in Paris 212
5. The Popularization of the French Language in Poland and Problems with Polish Education in France ................................................................. 216
Chapter 6: Economic and Trade Relations
1. Trade and Finance Issues
2. Compensation for Nationalization
3. Payment of Prewar Debts
4. Caisse Commune
5. Issues Connected with Social Insurance

Chapter 7: The New Shape of Relations between the PCF and the PZPR

Chapter 1: Main Issues in Political Relations
1. Gierek and the New Opening of Contacts with France
2. The German Question
3. France, Poland and the Issues of Détente, Security and Disarmament
4. Behind the Scenes at the Talks in Wilanów
5. New Challenges

Chapter 2: Culture, Academics, Science, Technology, Education, Social Security and Taxes
2. The Functioning of the Most Important Institutions of Cultural, Academic, Scientific and Scientific-technical Cooperation
3. Cultural Cooperation
5. An Unresolved Controversy: The Polish Library in Paris
6. Problems Tied to the Teaching of Languages and Questions about Polish Education in France
7. Issues Tied to the Movement of People
8. The Role of Friendship Societies

Chapter 3: Main Problems in Economic Relations
1. Objectives, Roles and Determinants of Polish-French Economic Relations
2. The Basic Principles and Institutions of Cooperation
3. Financial Issues and the Balance and Structure of Bilateral Trade
4. The Most Important Forms and Areas of Cooperation
5. The Issues of Social Insurance and Taxes

Chapter 4: Contacts between the PCF and PZPR