CONTENTS

Acknowledgments........................................................................................................... ix

J. Döveling, J. L. Kanywanyi, A. Nahayo and U. Wanitzek
Introduction: Regional Integration and Law – East African and European Perspectives....................................................................................................................... 1

Part I
Regional Integration and Law in East Africa

Josaphat Laurean Kanywanyi
Regional Integration and Law in East Africa: Some Major Challenges ........ 13

Denis Bikesha

Anatole Nabayo
On the Way to Harmonisation of Domestic Tax Laws within the East African Community: Achievements, Challenges and Prospects for Burundi ........................................................................................................... 59

Gamaliel Mgongo Fimbo
Human Rights Perspectives Regarding the Institution of Criminal Proceedings in Subordinate Courts in Tanzania............................................................... 99

Sheillah Nyanzi
Mandatory SIM Card Registration in Uganda: A Critical Analysis of Its Effectiveness ........................................................................................................... 121
Grace Kamugisha Kazoba
Combating Counterfeit and Substandard Pharmaceuticals in Tanzania:
Consumer Protection within the Framework of the East African Community Single Customs Territory ............................................. 155

Part II
Regional Integration and Law in Europe

Olivier Dubos
The French Constitution and the European Union: The Alchemy of Sovereignty and Integration at the Service of the Constitutional Council? 197

Bernd Kannowski
Regional Integration and Legal Harmonisation in the European Union:
A German Perspective...................................................................... 221

Johannes Döveling
How Germany Contributes to the Effectiveness of European Law and Simultaneously Preserves Its Constitutional Identity: An Overview of the Relationship between German Law and European Law ..................... 233

Ulrike Wanitzek and Laura Viviane de Leeuw
Family Law and Human Rights: European Perspectives .................... 267

About the Authors and Editors ....................................................... 310