Contents

1. Introduction

2. The institutional setting of a ‘right to reparations’
   2.1 The promise of reparations
   2.2 From a ‘right to reparations’ to a reparations program

3. Setting the ground for reparations in Sierra Leone
   3.1 The civil war and its legacy
   3.2 Reparations in the Sierra Leone Truth and the Reconciliation Commission
   3.3 The establishment and design of the reparations program

4. Views from the ground: beneficiaries’ experiences with the program
   4.1 Analysis of the program’s design
   4.2 Structural problems in the implementation phase
   4.3 Interpretations of neglect and misuse
   4.4 Narratives of good luck and social envy

5. Conclusion and Recommendations
   5.1 Conclusion
   5.2 Recommendations

Abbreviations

Bibliography

Annex: List of interviews