Contents

Acknowledgements xi
Abbreviations xiii
Introduction 1

SECTION I  Contexts 37

CHAPTER I
Discovering the Importance of Freedom: Formative Influences on Joseph Ratzinger and his Theology 41
  1.1. A Life Marked by the Theme of Freedom 42
  1.2. Theological Attitude towards Ideology 49
  1.3. Encounter with Augustinian Ecclesiology: Self-Surrender in Love 54
  1.4. The Dynamic Meaning of Revelation in Bonaventure and the Emergence of the Principle of Dialogue 60
  1.5. Exploring the Truth of Being Human 76
  1.6. Emergence of a Christological Hermeneutic 86
  1.7. Conclusion 98

CHAPTER 2
Reading the Contemporary Cultural and Ecclesial Dynamics of Freedom 99
  2.1. Freedom as a “One-Sided” Idea in Modern Intellectual History: From Luther to Sartre 101
  2.2. Contemporary Cultural Dynamics of Freedom 114
SECTION III Manifestations

CHAPTER 6

The Church at Worship: The School of Human Freedom

6.1. Prayer as Affirmatory, Purificatory and Identificatory

6.2. Ecclesial Faith and Freedom: The Act of Trust and Obedience

6.3. Worship and Human Ecology

6.4. Conclusion

CHAPTER 7

The Church and the Office of ἐπίσκοπος:

Overseeing Growth in Authentic Freedom

7.1. Custodian of Religious Liberty

7.2. Advocate for Creation and Creative Reason

7.3. Exercising Magisterial Authority

7.4. Living the Tension between the Prophetic and Hierarchic Charisms

7.5. Being Ready to Suffer

7.6. Conclusion

CHAPTER 8

The Church as Witness: Practising Freedom in the World

8.1. The Personal Level of Conscience

8.2. The Communal Level of Martyrdom and Sainthood

8.3. The Societal Level of Civil Religion

8.4. Conclusion

CHAPTER 9

Concluding Evaluation

9.1. The Significance of Ratzinger's Contribution

9.2. Potential Avenues of Future Enquiry