Contents

Special Issue: Multilingualism and European Language Policy: New Directions
Guest Editors: Koen Jaspaert, Bob Carter & Alison Sealey

Bob Carter and Alison Sealey
Realist Social Theory and Multilingualism in Europe — 1

Koen Jaspaert
Creating quarter for doing things with language — 21

Bente A. Svendsen and Stefania Marzo
A ‘new’ speech style is born. The omnipresence of structure and agency in the life of semiotic registers in heterogeneous urban spaces — 47

Ivana Grbavac
Linguistic landscaping as an RST research method: the downfall of language policies in a post-war context — 87

Daniel Perrin
Realism, social cohesion, and media policymaking: The case of Swiss public broadcasting — 111

On AILA Europe

María Luisa Carrió-Pastor
AESLA: The Spanish Association for Applied Linguistics — 135

Research Projects for Europe

Anne-Claude Berthoud, François Grin and Georges Lüdi
THE DYLAN Project: “Language Dynamics and Management of Diversity” — 145
Corrigendum

Maria Mroz and Carolyn Letts
Corrigendum to Early years education, language and social background: A decade of changing policy and practice