Contents

Religion in Cultural Imaginary
Setting the Scene

Daria Pesgoti-Olgiati

The Construction of the ‘Alien’ in the Social Imaginary of 16th Century Germany
The Woman of Endor from Religious Mediator to Witch

Ann Jeffers

Imagining a Nation
The Civil-Religious Role of Female State Personifications

Anna-Katharina Höpfinger

Western Imaginaries between Fascination, Colonial Construction and Appropriation
The Lore of a Mysterious India, of the Goddess Kali and of her Evil Devotees

Paola von Wyss-Giacosa

Apocalyptic Imaginaries
Contrasting Approaches to Revelation

Natasha O’Hear

Mobilizing Biblical Imaginary in Comics
Robert Crumb’s The Book of Genesis

Davide Zordan

Images Travelling through Time and Media
De- and Reconstruction of the Holy Family in Contemporary Independent Cinema

Natalie Fritz

The Reconstruction of a Jewish Imaginary
Susanne Mogul’s Documentary Driving Men as an Identifying Practice

Marie-Therese Mäder
Catholic Iconography, Cultural Memory and Imaginaries
The Sacred Heart in Irish Emigrant Identity 229
Sean Michael Ryan

Imagining Religion in the Public Space
Religious References in Contemporary Art 253
Daria Pezzoli-Olgiati

The Journey of a Symbol through Western Imaginaries
The Curious Case of the Apple 279
Stefanie Knauss

Towards a 'Circuit of Technological Imaginaries'
A Theoretical Approach 303
Alexander D. Ornella

Authors 333

List of Figures 337

Index of Keywords 341