Contents

Andrea Bonoldi (Trento), Markus A. Denzel (Leipzig/Bolzano), Andrea Leonardi (Trento), Cinzia Lorandini (Trento)
The Merchant in the Crisis. An Introduction ........................................... 7

Giuseppe De Luca (Milan)
Between Theory and Reality: Economic Crises and the Historiography of Early Modern Europe ......................................................... 15

Edoardo Demo (Verona)
Opening “New Business Routes” to Beat the Competition.
The Merchants of the Venetian Mainland in Sixteenth-century Europe ................................................................. 37

Christof Jeggle (Bamberg)
Coping with the Crisis. Italian Merchants in Seventeenth-century Nuremberg ............................................................. 51

Pierre Gervais (Paris)
Facing and Surviving War: Merchant Strategies, Market Management and Transnational Merchant Rings ......................... 79

Marie-Claude Schöpfer (Brig)
The Fratelli Loscho in Brig: An Alpine Trading House in Times of Transition (c. 1760s–1830s) .................................................... 95

Francesco Vianello (Padova)
Trading in Time of Revolution. The Papers of Giovanni Domenico Bonin, Silk Merchant of Vicenza (1787–1793) .............. 115

Cinzia Lorandini (Trento)
Sailing through Troubled Times: The Salvadori Firm of Trento during the Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars, 1790–1815 .... 131
Markus A. Denzel (Leipzig/Bolzano)

Andrea Bonoldi (Trento)
The End of the Fair. The Decline of an Alpine Market in the First Half of the Nineteenth Century ............................................. 183

List of Contributors ........................................................................................................ 204