

Contents

Preface.....	9
Chapter 1: Knowledge and Learning: Some Examples .....	13
Introduction.....	13
The Cello Master Class .....	14
The Honour of Work and the Practical Intellect.....	16
The School of Architecture, Quist and Petra .....	22
Being, Doing and Experiencing—Embodiment.....	27
Human Roles—the Order of Things .....	32
Chapter 2: Tacit Knowledge and Silenced Knowledge.
The Body, Culture, Action—and Language.....	35
Introduction.....	35
Tacit Knowledge—an Ongoing Debate .....	37
The “Tacit” Is Everywhere—and Nowhere .....	42
And Yet There Is Much that Remains Unspoken—and Perhaps Unsayable .....	46
“The Expressions of the Tacit” 1: the Body.....	50
An Excursus: Knowing That versus Knowing How.....	53
“The Expressions of the Tacit” 2: Culture.....	60
“The Expressions of the Tacit” 3: Action.....	62
Why All This Talk about Knowledge?—or: You Can Do More than You Know ... ..	65
... And Then There’s Language .....	67

Chapter 3: Knowledge: A Search Without End .....	71
Introduction .....	71
Living Knowledge—Knowledge-In-Use .....	72
The Western Tradition of Knowledge .....	77
Living in the World .....	84
Enlightenment and the Critical Aspects of Knowledge .....	87
Knowledge of the Good and Doing Good .....	92
Knowledge Is Never on Its Own.....	96
Chapter 4: Dialogue—Conversation and Action .....	99
Introduction .....	99
The “Socratic” Dialogue .....	101
The Foundation of Knowledge: The Art of Bringing Knowledge into the World .....	104
The Limits of Scepticism .....	107
The “I” and the “We” .....	108
Text, Interpretation, Context—and the “In Between” .....	110
A Purely “Theoretical” Concept of Reason? .....	114
Knowledge Formation and the Destruction of Knowledge .....	116
Chapter 5: Human Action—Always on the Way .....	123
Introduction .....	123
Acting—Knowing How and Knowing What One Is Doing .....	126
The Reasons for Action: Questions and Answers .....	128
The Holistic Nature of Action.....	132
The Openness of Action.....	136
The Dependence of Action on Others.....	142
Conceptions of the Human Being.....	145

Knowing What One Is Not Doing and What One Has the Right Not to Know .....	148
Chapter 6: The Reflective Practitioner .....	151
Introduction .....	151
Technical and Practical Rationality .....	152
Knowledge and Reflection.....	157
Knowledge and Reflection as Conversation.....	165
Theories-in-Use .....	169
Teaching-and-Learning in Action .....	173
Constructing Worlds—and Finding Your Way in the World.....	178
Chapter 7: The Paths of Knowledge—Orientation     and Control.....	183
Introduction.....	183
Knowledge and Interest.....	185
Technical Knowledge: Power and Representation .....	188
Orientation: Direction and Overview .....	191
Criticism: Method and Orientation.....	196
The Contexts of Knowledge.....	201
Modernity—Orientation and Disorientation.....	206
Chapter 8: To Be Continued—in Action:     the Power and Openness of the Example .....	211
Introduction.....	211
Kuhn’s Professional Scientist and Schön’s Skilful Practitioner.....	214
Rules and Concepts Are Rooted in Action—and Examples.....	220
Examples: the Basis for Comparisons, for Finding Limits—and for Maintaining Openness.....	228
“Generalisation in Action” and Our Abstract World .....	233

Chapter 9: Two Sides of the Same Coin—Professional Knowledge and the Culture of Knowledge .....	237
Introduction .....	237
The Time and Rhythm of Knowledge.....	238
Research into Professional Knowledge .....	241
The Double Grasp: Routine and Expertise .....	246
Developing Certainty—“So That You Know What You Are Doing” .....	253
Knowledge Cultures and the Culture of Knowledge.....	261
 Chapter 10: Participating in Knowledge—With Good Reason.....	263
Introduction.....	263
Knowledge in Action: Acting with Good Reason .....	267
Shared Knowledge and Undivided Responsibility.....	274
Knowledge in Action—Following Rules in a Skilful Way .....	280
Knowledge in Action: the Supreme Dialectic.....	286
Art as a Striving for the Best—Once Again.....	292
What Does an Epistemology Capture in Practice?.....	295
 Epilogue: Education and Research for Living Knowledge.....	297
 Literature.....	303
 Index of Names .....	313