Contents

A. Introduction

Basic Concept and Realization ................................................................. 11
Renate Haas

B. National Surveys

Southern Europe

Women’s and Gender Studies in Portugal:
An Overview from an Anglicist Perspective ........................................ 27
Ana Gabriela Macedo / Margarida Esteves Pereira

Women’s Studies and English Studies in Spain:
From Democracy to Transnationalism ..................................................... 51
Esther Álvarez López / Isabel Carrera Suárez / Carla Rodríguez González

Anglicist Women’s and Gender Studies in Italy:
The Bologna Case as an Emblematic Example ........................................ 87
Vita Fortunati

Western and Central Europe

Beyond Invisibility and Bias: English Women’s and Gender Studies in France ........................................................................ 105
Florence Binard

Women’s Studies in Belgium: Through the Gate of English Literature ..................................................................................... 133
Marysa Demoor

Germany: Two Steps Forward and One Back, or Slow Snowball Effect? .................................................................... 141
Renate Haas
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Region</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Authors</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Austria</td>
<td>The Long and Winding Road towards the Institutionalization of Women's and Gender Studies</td>
<td>Susanne Hamscha</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anglo-American</td>
<td>Women's and Gender Studies in the Czech Republic: An Uncertain Discipline</td>
<td>Věra Eliášová / Simona Fojtová / Martina Horáková</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Croatia</td>
<td>The Social Symbolic in a Transitional Society and Women's Studies</td>
<td>Ljiljana Ina Gjurgjan †</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Northern Europe</td>
<td>A Semi-Outsider's Point of View: The Institutionalization of Gender Research in Sweden</td>
<td>Mia Liinason</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Finland</td>
<td>Moderate Finnish Feminism: From a Struggle for Equality in the Welfare State to Diverse and Established Gender Studies</td>
<td>Elina Valovirta / Joel Kuortti</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lithuania</td>
<td>Pioneering Women's and Gender Studies in the Post-Soviet Baltic Republic</td>
<td>Marija Aušrinė Pavilonienė</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>South-Eastern and Eastern Europe</td>
<td>The Role of Anglo-American Women in the Development of Gender Studies in Serbia: From NGO to Academia</td>
<td>Aleksandra Izgarjan / Dubravka Djurić</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Romania</td>
<td>Anglicist Women's and Gender Studies in Romania: Between Persistence and Resistance</td>
<td>Ana-Karina Schneider with Corina Selejan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bulgaria</td>
<td>The Other Frontier: Anglicist Gender Studies in Bulgaria</td>
<td>Milena Katsarska</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Armenia: Ancient Traditions, Upheavals, and the Beginnings of Anglicist Women’s and Gender Studies

Seda Gasparian / Gayane Muradian

C. Conclusion

Europe and Beyond

Renate Haas

Contributors

Index