

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments	xi
List of Images	xv
Introduction	1
Mary M. Solberg
1. The Original Guidelines of the German Christian Faith Movement	45
Joachim Hossenfelder
2. The Aryan Paragraph in the Church and Responses	53
Various Authors
3. Theological Existence Today!	81
Karl Barth
4. What the German Christians Want for the Church	101
Emanuel Hirsch
5. The History of the "German Christian" Faith Movement	121
Arnold Dannemann
6. The Handbook of the German Christians (1933)	163
German Christian National Church Union

7.	The Jewish Question Gerhard Kittel	201
8.	Our Struggle Joachim Hossenfelder	229
9.	Speech at the Sports Palace in Berlin Reinhold Krause	249
10.	Declaration of the National Bishop Regarding the Events in the Sports Palace Ludwig Müller	263
11.	Outline of German Theology Friedrich Wieneke	267
12.	German Christians: A People's Book A Guide to Today's Faith Movement Constantin Grossmann	293
13.	The German Community of Christ The Path to the German National Church Julius Leutheuser	321
14.	Christ in Germany's Third Reich The Nature, the Path, and the Goal of the German Christian Church Movement Siegfried Leffler	337
15.	Political Christianity On the Thuringian "German Christians" Paul Althaus	365
16.	God's Word in German The Sermon on the Mount, Germanized Ludwig Müller	383

17.	What Do the German Christians Want? 118 Questions and Answers Otto Brökelschen	395
18.	Freedom of Conscience Wolf Meyer-Erlach	421
19.	Jesus and the Jews! Organization for German Christianity	433
20.	The Godesberg Declaration and Responses Various Authors	443
21.	Who Is Jesus of Nazareth? Walter Grundmann	453
	Bibliography	471
	Index	479