

Contents

Tables and Figures Abbreviations

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 1. Introduction | 1 |
| 2. Review of International Post-Conflict Peacebuilding Strategies | 5 |
| 3. Conceptualization of the Effects of Corruption on Political Stability in Post-Conflict Situations | 14 |
| 3.1. Introducing the Concepts | 14 |
| 3.1.1. The Concept of Corruption | 14 |
| 3.1.2. Definitions of Political Stability | 18 |
| 3.1.3. Post-Conflict States | 21 |
| 3.2. Factors of Political Stability in Different Regimes | 24 |
| 3.2.1. Political Stability in Democracies and Autocracies | 25 |
| 3.2.2. Political Stability in Post-Conflict States | 30 |
| 3.3. The Effects of Corruption on Political Stability | 36 |
| 3.3.1. On Democratic and Autocratic Regimes | 36 |
| 3.3.2. On Post-Conflict Regimes | 39 |
| 3.4. Tentative Conclusion | 51 |
| 4. Case Study: Sierra Leone | 52 |
| 4.1. Corruption and Political Stability in Sierra Leone | 53 |
| 4.1.1. Current Levels of Political Stability and Corruption | 53 |
| 4.1.2. Contextual Factors of Corruption in Sierra Leone | 55 |
| 4.1.3. The Conflict and the Lomé Peace Agreement | 61 |
| 4.1.4. The Peacebuilding Process | 62 |
| 4.2. Effect of Corruption on Political Stability | 65 |
| 4.3. Tentative Conclusion | 70 |
| 5. Conclusion | 71 |
| Bibliography | 76 |