

Contents

Abbreviations

Summary and recommendations	1
1 Introduction	5
2 The system of SDGs: enhanced need for an integrated approach	8
3 Getting into gear in the EU and its Member States	17
3.1 Stock-taking of activities in the EU and its Member States	17
3.2 Existing gap analyses: coverage and methodological approach	23
4 Challenging policy areas	25
4.1 Analysis of existing ‘gap analyses’	26
4.2 Examples of SDGs with a strong domestic-external dimension	34
5 Linking the SDGs, and focus areas of the EU and the European Commission: still a long way to go?	38
6 Conclusions and recommendations	46
6.1 On approach and governance	46
6.2 On challenging policy areas to be pursued	50
6.3 Walking the talk: towards a Sustainable Development Union	52
Bibliography	55
Annex 1: Summary of the results of the gap analyses performed for Sweden, the Netherlands and by FES with respect to challenging policy areas	63

Tables

Table 1: Comparison of terminology used for the three main SDG implementation tracks	8
Table 2: Gap analyses, plans for SDG implementation and governance mechanisms in 8 EU Member States and Switzerland	19
Table 3: EU OECD Member States ranking in the lowest and second lowest category per SDG and respective two indicators used in Kroll (2015)	27
Table 4: The Europe 2020 Strategy (March 2010) and the SDGs	40
Table 5: The European Commission’s Ten Priorities (July 2014) and the SDGs	41
Table 6: Five Presidents’ Report Priorities (June 2015) and the SDGs	42
Table 7: EU Sustainable Development Strategy and the SDGs	45