CONTENTS

PART I. NAMALAND, HEREROLAND AND OVAMBOLAND

I. DISCOVERY AND EXPLORATION

1. THE DISCOVERY OF THE COAST 3
2. THE EXPLORATION OF THE COAST: THE GRUNDEL 8
3. THE BODE 10
4. THE MEERMIN 16
5. JACOBUS COETSE AND HENDRIK HOP 18
6. H. J. WIKAR 22
7. GORDON, C. LE VAILLANT, WILLEM VAN REENEN, AND PIETER BRAND 30
8. SEBASTIAN VAN REENEN AND PIETER PIENAAR 37

II. THE COUNTRY AND ITS PEOPLE

1. THE COUNTRY 41
2. THE HEREROS 45
3. THE NAMAS 51
4. THE BERGDAMAS 60
5. THE OVAMBO TRIBES 67
6. THE BUSHMEN 78

III. MIGRATIONS AND DWELLING-PLACES

1. THE INHABITANTS OF OLDEN TIMES 93
2. THE BUSHMEN 101
3. THE BERGDAMAS 107
4. THE HOTENTOTS AND THE SAAN 119
5. THE HEREROS 131
6. THE OVAMBO TRIBES 153

PART II. NAMALAND AGAINST HEREROLAND

I. INVASION AND WARFARE

1. THE NAMA INVASION
   The spreading of the old tribes 169
   A new Nama tribe 170
   The invasion of the Orlam tribes 171
CONTENTS

2. THE HERERO INVASION
- In their own country 174
- In Namaland 177

3. THE STRUGGLE: JONKER AFRIKANDER
- The Koranas 178
- Games and Jonker 179
- Jonker and the Hereros 180

4. PROGRESS IN EXPLORATION
- Missionaries and travellers as explorers 183
- Sir J. E. Alexander’s expedition 185

5. THE BEGINNINGS OF CIVILIZATION AND ITS OBSTACLES
- The beginnings of civilization 190
- Obstacles in the way of civilization 193

II. UNDER THE DESPOTISM OF WINDHOEK

1. JONKER’S TEN YEARS OF TYRANNY
- The position in 1840 196
- The peace of Christmas Eve, 1842 198
- The growth of the Afrikander tribe 201
- Jonker’s plans for the future 203
- Jonker and Oasib 205
- Jonker’s breach of the peace 207
- The results of breaking the peace 210
- War with Kahitjene 211
- The massacre at Okahandja 217
- After the massacre 219

2. MISSIONARY EFFORTS

3. THE PROGRESS OF CIVILIZATION AND ITS OBSTACLES
- Road making 223
- Postal arrangements 225
- Tribal organization 227
- Trade and traders 229
- Obstacles to civilization 233

4. THE EXPLORATION OF THE COUNTRY
- The extension of geographical knowledge 236
- Native languages and literature 239
III. UNDER THE DOMINATION OF OKAHANDJA 1852-1862

1. THE TEN YEARS OF DECLINE
   The Galton peace treaty of Windhoek 243
   The Hereros’ quarrels amongst themselves 247
   Jonker comes back 251
   The Namas stay where they are 257
   Oasib against Jonker 260
   The peace of Hoachanas 265
   Jonker and the Ovambo tribes 269
   The Europeans and the Namas 273
   The death of Jonker Afrikander and of Tjamuaha 275
   The death-knell of the Jonker period 279

2. THE PROGRESS OF CIVILIZATION AND ITS OBSTACLES
   Copper in Namaland 282
   Copper mines in the north 283
   Trade and traffic 286
   The carriage of mails and goods 288
   The settlement of wandering tribes 291

3. PROGRESS IN THE EXPLORATION OF THE COUNTRY
   Ovamboland: Galton and Andersson 293
   The East: Galton and Andersson 299
   From Walfish Bay to Lake Ngami: Andersson 301
   From Lake Ngami to Walfish Bay: James Chapman, 1855 304
   Ovamboland: Hahn, Rath, and Green 307
   The Okavango: Charles John Andersson 315

PART III. HEREROLAND AGAINST NAMALAND

I. THE HERERO WAR OF FREEDOM AND THE ORLAM WAR

1. THE HERERO WAR OF FREEDOM
   The Herero leaders 325
   The Nama leaders 326
   After Tjamuaha’s death 327
   At Otjimbingwe 332
   The battle of Otjimbingwe 335
   After the fight at Otjimbingwe 337
   Andersson’s battle 341
The end of Rehoboth 347
The Herero rising in Gobabis 349
The attack on Otjimbingwe of 3rd September 1865 351
The attack on Otjimbingwe and the plundering of Walfish Bay 355
The last events of the war of freedom 359

2. THE WITBOOI OR ORLAM WAR
The Witboois 364
The first attack on Gibeon 368
The second attack on Gibeon 369
The third attack on Gibeon 373
The peace of Gibeon 377

3. THE INTERVENTION OF THE CAPE GOVERNMENT
The petitions 379
Piers as Government Commissioner at Bethanie 382
The Cape Government’s letters to the chiefs 384

4. THE PEACE OF OKAHANDJA
Hugo Hahn as peacemaker 385
Krönlein as peacemaker 386
Moses Witbooi’s subterfuges 387
Jan Jonker’s subterfuges 389
The ‘real’ peace 391

5. THE WORK AND PROGRESS OF CIVILIZATION
The wandering Namas 394
The Basters as wanderers 395
Colonization, trade and business 400
The founding of the Augustineum 402

II. THE TEN YEARS OF PEACE: 1870-1880

1. THE POLITICAL POSITION
Maharero and the Hereros 404
Maharero and Jan Jonker 407
Maharero, Jan Jonker, and the Basters 411
The Orlams of Gobabis 416

2. THE TREK-BOERS 418
3. THE CAPE GOVERNMENT IN SOUTH WEST AFRICA

   Introduction 423
   W. Coates Palgrave, the Special Commissioner 427
   Palgrave and the Hereros 428
   Palgrave and the Namas 431
   The Cape Government's first measures 435
   The Civil Commissioner and the Hereros 436
   The Civil Commissioner and the Namas 438
   Palgrave's third mission 441

4. CULTURAL ADVANCEMENT 445

III. THE TEN YEARS OF WAR: 1880-1890

1. THE WAR OF THE SWAKOP BOUNDARY
   The cause of the war 449
   The evening of blood at Gurumanas 452
   The night of blood at Okahandja 453
   Hendrik Witbooi's first revelation 456
   The end of Windhoek 456
   The first battles 458
   The operations of the southern forces 460
   The operations of the eastern forces 464
   Dr Hugo Hahn's mission 465
   Krönlein's mission 467
   Maharero's regulation of the boundary 470

2. HENDRIK WITBOOI'S WAR
   Hendrik Witbooi's youth 472
   Hendrik Witbooi and his father 478
   The day of Onguheva 481
   'The year of lies' 484
   Hendrik's third step 488
   Hendrik's petty warfare against the Hereros 491

3. THE END OF EARLY SOUTH WEST AFRICA
   Moses Witbooi's death 494
   Paul Visser's death 497
   Jan Jonker's death 498
   Maharero's death 501
LITERATURE 509
INDEX 512
LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS 529

MAPS
South West Africa: 1820 after p. 165
South West Africa: Illustrative of the years 1820-1880 at end
South West Africa: 1936 at end