

Contents

Revolutions and Counter-Revolutions: An Introduction . . . . .	9
Stefan Rinke and Michael Wildt
I. Global Revolution
1917–1920 and the Global Revolution of Rising Expectations . . . .	31
Jörn Leonhard
II. The Russian Revolution and Beyond
Portent or Salvation: The Russian Revolution . . . . .	55
Dietrich Beyrau
A Laboratory of Modern Politics: The Russian Revolution and its International Legacy. . . . .	79
Jan Claas Behrends
Global Catholicism's Crusade against Communism, 1917–1963 . . .	103
Patrick J. Houlihan
After Empire, Before Nation: Competing Ideologies and the Bolshevik Moment of the Anatolian Revolution . . . . .	119
Abdulhamit Kırmızı

III. Revolutionary Violence

The Role of Violence in the European Counter-Revolution, 1917–1939 . . . . . 141
Robert Gerwarth

The Role of the Siberian Intervention in Japan’s Modern History . . . 161
Izao Tomio

China in the Age of Revolutions, Counter-Revolutions, and Violence . . . . . 179
Xu Guoqi

IV. Revolutions between the Global and the Local

“The Birth Year of Revolutions”: Latin American Debates about the Global Challenges of 1917–1919 . . . . . 201
Stefan Rinke

Global Moments, Local Impacts: Argentina at the Critical Juncture of 1917 . . . . . 219
María Inés Tato

Spain’s “Crisis of 1917” . . . . . 235
Enric Ucelay-Da Cal

The Importance of Being Female. Women and (Counter-)Revolution in Spain (1917–1939) . . . . . 261
Birgit Aschmann

World War I and Urban Societies: Social Movements, Fears, and Spatial Order in Hamburg and Chicago (c. 1916–1923) . . . . . 287
Klaus Weinbauer

---

V. Cultures of Revolution

The Aesthetics of Revolution: Dada and the Transgression of Borders . . . . . 309
David Hopkins

The Appearance and Rise of Popular Culture: Mexico, Russia and the United States, 1917–1920 . . . . . 321
Ricardo Pérez Montfort

List of Editors, Authors and Further Contributors. . . . . 339