

Contents

Editorial 5

History, violence and mass graves

Mihran Dabag

Construction by destruction – Ideological dimensions of collective violence in the 20th century 9

Arne Segelke

Mass graves, violent events and history education 20

Mass graves in Georgia

Bernd Bonwetsch/Marc Junge

Georgia on its way – record of a research project 27

Vanya Ivanova / Matthias Klingenberg

About the absence of the present: Mass graves of the Stalin era in Georgia 36

Irakli Khvadagiani

Looking for lost graves in Georgia – The example of Saburtalo 51

Mass graves in other countries: Poland, Russia and Cambodia

Justyna Sawicka

Source material and archaeological research regarding victims of the communist terror during the years 1944-1956 in Poland 63

Łukasz Szleszkowski

Exhumations of the remains of the victims of post-war repressions in Poland 73

Mikhail Rozhanskiy

From The Mystery of Kilometre 10 to The Moon King's Cottage 82

Long Khet

Local Memory Initiative in Cambodia 98

Images of mass graves

Roma Sendyka

Landscapes of fear – cultural and societal responses to vegetation on contested and abandoned killing sites 113

Ansgar Gilster

Beyond the Monuments – Photographing the “forgotten”
sites of the Holocaust 121

List of authors 129

Titles of volumes available 133