

The novel

- The author 6
- The content 9
- The characters 15

Das Unterrichtsmodell

- Vorüberlegungen zum Einsatz des Romans im Unterricht 19
- Konzeption des Unterrichtsmodells 21
- Weiterführende Materialien 22

Klausur 24

Lösungen zu Food for thought-Aufgaben der Textausgabe 148

Component 1 (Chapters 1–4): Belonging to family, home and region 32

- 1.1 Getting started 32
- 1.2 Reading logs (chapters 1–4) 33
- 1.3 Approaching Larry Ott 34
- 1.4 Larry Ott's family: Belonging to a family or longing for a place in a family? 36
- 1.5 Silas "32" Jones: The past and the present Silas 38
- 1.6 The American South: A place of home? 39
- Copy 1: Approaching the novel (quotes from Crooked Letter, Crooked Letter) 44
- Copy 2: Larry's home and work life (reciprocal reading) 45
- Copy 3: Larry's character profile: Questionnaire 1 46
- Copy 4: Adjectives for characterization 47
- Copy 5: Family of belonging or family of longing? – Questionnaire 48
- Copy 6: Larry's position in his family 52
- Copy 7: Bar talk 53
- Copy 8: Silas's character profile: Questionnaire 54
- Copy 9: Southern route: A photographic journey 55
- Copy 10: Nina Simone 58
- Copy 11: How to describe landscapes 60
- Copy 12: The setting of Crooked Letter, Crooked Letter 61
- Copy 13: Paul Theroux's journey through America's Deep South 62
- Copy 14: The American South as depicted in Crooked Letter, Crooked Letter 64
- Copy 15: What "white trash" means 66
- Copy 16: Lynyrd Skynyrd: "Sweet Home Alabama" 67
- Copy 17: Dudley Randall: Ballad of Birmingham 68
- Copy 18: The Birmingham Campaign 70
- Copy 19: How the media covered the Civil Rights Movement (listening comprehension) 71

Component 2 (Chapters 5–8): Struggling to belong against the backdrop of race 72

- 2.1 Larry, an outsider among his peers at school: "You got to join our club." (p. 51) 72
- 2.2 Desegregation at school or "The Ambiguity of Belonging" 73

- 2.3 Larry's further struggle for belonging: Coping with a life apart and longing for Cindy 75
- 2.4 Silas as both uprooted and grounded 78
- 2.5 Silas as an outsider 80

- Copy 20: Larry's interior monologue after the incident with his schoolmates 82
- Copy 21: Timeline of school integration in the U.S. 83
- Copy 22: Interview with Fran Jackson (1) 85
- Copy 23: Interview with Fran Jackson (2) 88
- Copy 24: The zombie experience 92
- Copy 25: Larry's date: Who says what and why? 93
- Copy 26: Peer pressure 99
- Copy 27: African-Americans in Chicago 101
- Copy 28: The Beatles: Eleanor Rigby 103

Component 3 (Chapters 9 – 12): A sense of belonging: Larry's and Silas's intertwining lives 104

- 3.1 Building a friendship on their own: The past (1) 104
  - 3.2 Family bonds: Belonging together 104
  - 3.3 The end of a friendship: The past (2) 107
  - 3.4 The impact of the fight on Larry and Silas and their further lives 108
- Copy 29: A bunch of quotes 111
  - Copy 30: Family bonds 112
  - Copy 31: Solomon makes a difficult decision 113
  - Copy 32: Vocabulary to describe the crucial moment of the fight 114
  - Copy 33: Larry's and Silas's lives between the disappearances of Cindy and Tina Rutherford 115

Component 4 (Chapters 13 – 19): On the way to belonging 120

- 4.1 Detecting the truth: Features of a crime novel 120
  - 4.2 Truth: A key element in the crime novel and a value in real life 121
  - 4.3 Becoming aware of being guilty and coping with it 123
  - 4.4 Developing personal growth and a sense of belonging 124
  - 4.5 Accepting the ambiguity of belonging: The final goal 125
- Copy 34: Crime novels 127
  - Copy 35: Vocab sheet: Crime 128
  - Copy 36: David Langness: Review 131
  - Copy 37: Your course of investigation: How to proceed to achieve results 133
  - Copy 38: What if everybody had succeeded in communicating with each other? 135
  - Copy 39: Silas telling the truth about Cindy 137
  - Copy 40: Coping with guilt 138
  - Copy 41: Larry's and Silas's progress towards belonging and the acceptance of ambiguity: The final scenes of the novel 139