Contents

Foreword ................................................................. 9

Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET) in Sub-Saharan Africa: the missing middle in post-school education
Peliwe Lolwana ......................................................... 11

Cross-country comparison of TVET systems, practices and policies, and employability of youth in Sub-Saharan Africa
Moses Oketch .......................................................... 25

Session 1
Vocational Education and Training (VET) — Basics for teaching and research in Vocational Education and Training at Universities .................. 39

A comparative study of TVET in 5 African Countries with a specific focus on TVET Teacher Education
Joy Papier ............................................................... 41

Dual Vocational Education and Training Systems in Europe: Lessons learned from Austria, Germany and Switzerland
Waldemar Bauer
Michael Gessler .......................................................... 48

Developing Lecturers at VET Institutions through Engagements with Industry: the South African Experience
Ken Duncan ............................................................... 67

Models of University-based Further Education Programmes (FEPs) for Vocational Education and Training Practitioners and the Economic Development of Sub-Saharan Africa
Benjamin A. Ogwo .................................................... 74

Bibliografische Informationen
http://d-nb.info/1126514926
Applied Learning design in an online VET Teacher Education course: A pedagogical framework that responds to the needs of mature-aged, employed students
Jillian Downing ................................................................. 83

Paradigms for Networking Universities and Vocational Education and Training Institutions on Competency-Based Further Education in Sub-Saharan Africa
Benadeth N. Ezekoye .......................................................... 93

Theory and method of reflection levels — its use in Vocational Education and Training
Martin D. Hartmann .......................................................... 104

Further Education for Technical and Vocational Education and Training Teachers at Pedagogical University, Maputo
Brigida D’Oliveira Singo ..................................................... 112

Fundamentals of the development of Vocational Education and Further Education of VET pedagogues in Sub-Saharan Africa
Friedhelm Eicker ............................................................... 119

The Train the Trainer-System — Results of a research and development project for and with VET pedagogues in Sub-Saharan Africa
Gesine Haseloff ................................................................. 127

Session 2

Establishment of a VET system with focus on Further Education — presentation of ideas on the motivation and establishment of a Further Education system (FES), especially in Universities in Sub-Sahara Africa ............................................ 134

TT-TVET in Sub-Saharan Area: A proposal for work-process-oriented Teacher Training in the field of Vocational Education and Training
Ralph Dreher ................................................................. 137

Construction of Professional Tasks Based Curriculum for Applied Further Study Programme at Bachelor Level — take Nursing Distance Education as an example
Zhiqun Zhao, Baozhi Sun .................................................. 145

Situation and Development of Vocational Education and Training and VET Science in Namibia
J. Kamwi Subasubani ......................................................... 152

In-service Teacher Training for VET institutions: the challenge of evaluation in Comunitat Valenciana (Spain)
Anna Ciraso-Calí, Carla Quesada-Pallarès, Edith Mariana Rebollar-Sánchez .... 158
Participatory research on teaching practice as basis for Teacher Education and networking between universities and VET schools
Guiseppe Tacconi, Adula B. Hunde .................................................. 167

TVET-University Nexus: Room for Synergy
Ewnetu Hailu Tamene ........................................................................ 175

The “three branch model” of Further Education of in-company Vocational Educators: Linking in-company Learning Projects, external training in Further Education and University Learning
Nicolas F. Schröde ........................................................................... 183

TVET Teacher Further Education: Practice, Experiences and Reflections of Stakeholders in Catholic Sponsored Community Colleges in East Africa
Peter Changilwa Kigwilu ................................................................. 194

Establishment of a VET-system with focus on Further Education — Presentation of ideas on the motivation and establishment of a Further Education system, especially in universities in Sub-Saharan Africa
Alpheas Shindi .................................................................................. 205

The Challenge of Contextualization and Domestication of VET Reforms for Higher Education Staff Capacity in East Afrika
Winston Jumba Akala ................................................................. 212

Session 3

What are concepts or conditions of success for a networked VET learning and teaching (oriented on competence, working practice, flexible, etc.) and especially for a networked Further Education system in VET? .................................................................................. 219

Short cycle Higher Education programmes for Further Education of VET Practice skills trainers — An attractive alternative for VET trainers
Piet Lem, Fons Dehing, Cornelis van Dorp ........................................ 221

Understanding the English subject offered in the South African Technical Vocational Education and Training Colleges and its implications for the curriculum delivery
Mary M. Madileng ............................................................................. 231

A Review on TVET Programmes in Ethiopia: An Experience in Biomedical Technician Education
Esayas Alemayehu ........................................................................... 240

From “the Chicken or the Egg” Technical-Vocational and Informal Training Story to Industry's Manpower, What Comes first? A Philosophical Study
Daniel Dinis da Costa ........................................................................ 249
The Concept of Competence Based Assessment in Vocational Education and Training
Ethel Kyobe ................................................................. 257

Shaping and networking with digital media in Further Education: Conceptional and strategic considerations
Christoph Bohne .......................................................... 264

Learning and Exchange Platforms: An Approach to professionalise TVET trainers in Namibia?
Silke Partner ................................................................. 275

Promoting effective Work Integrated Learning (WIL) and Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) practices in the TVET sector through research
Nothemba Joyce Nduna .................................................. 282

Teachers understanding of Entrepreneurship Education in Malawi Secondary Schools
Feggie M. Mphasi ............................................................ 298

Design of Current Technical and Vocational Education and Training System in Zambia
Gabriel S. Konayuma ....................................................... 303

Competency based Education and Training for Training of Trainers in Vocational Education in Namibia: A curriculum evaluation
Lance P. Hauuanga ......................................................... 311

Professionalization of VET teachers and Curriculum Development in VET System: Results of Survey, Practice and Challenges in Burkina Faso, Senegal and Germany
Wendkouni J. Eric Sawadogo ........................................... 316

Professionalization of VET teachers in Ethiopia: The current practices, the challenges and the way forward
Adula Bekele Hunde, Giusseppe Tacconi .......................... 329

Closing remarks ............................................................. 342

Authors ........................................................................... 346