

Contents

Abbreviations	xiii
List of Contributors	xvi

PART I: CONNECTIONS AND DEMARCATIONS

1. Ferdinand Christian Baur and David Friedrich Strauss Ulrich Köpf	3
2. Ethical Judgment and Ecclesiastical Self-Understanding: Ferdinand Christian Baur's Interpretation of the Protestant Principle in the Controversy with Johann Adam Möhler Notger Slenczka	45
3. Ferdinand Christian Baur: A Historically Informed Idealist of a Distinctive Kind Martin Wendte	67

PART II: HISTORICAL AND EXEGETICAL PERSPECTIVES

4. Ferdinand Christian Baur and the Theological Task of New Testament Introduction David Lincicum	83
5. Baur and the Creation of the Judaism–Hellenism Dichotomy Anders Gerdmar	96
6. Ferdinand Christian Baur's View of Christian Gnosis, and of the Philosophy of Religion in His Own Day Volker Henning Drecoll	116
7. Ferdinand Christian Baur as Interpreter of Paul: History, the Absolute, and Freedom Christof Landmesser	147
8. The Essence of Early Christianity: On Ferdinand Christian Baur's View of the Synoptic Gospels Martin Bauspiess	177
9. Ferdinand Christian Baur and the Interpretation of John Jörg Frey	206
10. F. C. Baur's New Testament Theology Robert Morgan	236

11. Belief in Miracles as the Gateway to Atheism: Theological-Historical Remarks about Ferdinand Christian Baur's Critique of Miracles Stefan Alkier	261
12. The Absoluteness of Christianity and the Relativity of all History: Two Strands in Ferdinand Christian Baur's Thought Johannes Zachhuber	287

PART III: INFLUENCES

13. The Reception of Baur in Britain James Carleton Paget	307
14. The Similarity of the Two Masters: Ferdinand Christian Baur and Adolf von Harnack Daniel Geese	355
15. Ferdinand Christian Baur and Practical Theology Birgit Weyel	372
Bibliography of Works by and about Baur	391
Index of Biblical and Extra-Biblical Citations	403
Index of Authors	406
Index of Subjects	411