

Contents

Acknowledgements — V

Daniel Leese and Puck Engman

Introduction: Politics and Law in the Early People's Republic of China — 1

Xu Lizhi

- 1 Beyond “Destruction” and “Lawlessness”: The Legal System during the Cultural Revolution — 25

Michael Schoenhals

- 2 The Intelligence Sleeper Who Never Was: Han Fuying and Case 5004 — 52

Wang Haiguang

- 3 A Different Category of Life: The Counterrevolutionary Case of a Rural Schoolteacher — 75

Puck Engman

- 4 Vetting the People's Servant: On the Principles of Revolutionary Integrity — 98

Jeremy Brown

- 5 A Policeman, His Gun, and an Alleged Rape: Competing Appeals for Justice in Tianjin, 1966–1979 — 127

Zhang Man

- 6 From Denial to Apology: Narrative Strategies of a “Perpetrator” after the Cultural Revolution — 150

Song Guoqing

- 7 The Floating Fate of a Rebel Leader in Guangxi, 1966–1984 — 174

Contributors — 201

Index — 203