Contents

Monika Pietrzak-Franger, Nora Pleßke and Eckart Voigts:
Transforming Cities: Discourses of Urban Change from Victorian London to Global Megacities – An Introduction 7

Vanessa Miriam Carlow:
The Transformation of the London Green Belt: From Sanitary Scenery, Global City Infrastructure to Sustainable Landscape 27

Julia Faisst:
Strolling the Biophilic City: Flâneurism, Urban Nature and Eco-Fiction 43

Susanne Gruß:
Golems, Vampires and a Mechanical Queen: Neo-Gothic Detection and the Psychogeography of Urban Change 59

Nadine Böhm-Schnitker:
Sex and the City: 'Vicarious Kinaesthesia' in the Neo-Victorian Novel 75

Sarah Artt:
Femme Publique: The Brothel Sex Worker as Anti-Flâneuse in the Television Series Maison Close 91

Joyce Goggin:
Amsterdam's Red Light District and the Global Rise of Prostitution 107

Antonija Primorac:
Postcolonial Periphery as the Neo-Victorian Metropolis: Dublin as London's Body Double 127
Elizabeth Ho:
   Politicising Maps and Emotion: Transforming Cities
   Transforming Texts 145

Christian Gutleben:
   Whither Social Reformism in the Neo-Victorian Slum Narrative? 165

Marie-Luise Kohlke:
   Neo-Victorian Slumming in London's Gothicity: The Victorian
   Metropolis' Televisual Transformation into "The City of Dreadful
   Night" 181

Nora Pleßke:
   Improvements and Amusements: Urban Geographies of Entertainment in Nineteenth- and Twenty-First-Century London 211

Contributors' Addresses 241