

Contents

Welcome address Christoph Keilmann	13
Welcome address Horst Seehofer	15
Welcome address Dieter Reiter	17
Preface Bernhard Graf	18
Map	20

Masterpiece Mines 22

Europe	24
Himmelsfürst Mine (Brand-Erbisdorf near Freiberg, Saxony) 'Curled silver', a miracle of nature	24
Weardale Mines (County Durham, England) Huge fluorites, the so-called 'Weardale Giant'	28
Sainte-Marie-aux-Mines (Alsace, France) Solid silver and much more – owned by bishops and the high nobility	32
The Lavrion ore province (Attica, Greece) Five thousand years of mining and the locality with the most mineral species in the world	36
Volodarsk Mines (Volodarsk-Volynskii, west of Kiev, Ukraine) In the chamber pegmatites: beryls, topazes and moriones	40
Asia	44
Jalgaon (Savda, state of Maharashtra, India) Choice secondary minerals from the Deccan Traps	44
Depositories near Nagar and Shengus (Gilgit Baltistan, Pakistan) From the roof of the world: beryls, topazes, garnets and much more	48

Xuebaoding (Sichuan Province, China) Scheelite, cassiterite and beryl among pandas and eternal ice	52
Wuning Mine (Qingjiang, Jiangxi Province, China) Antimonite in utmost perfection	56
America	60
»Sweet Home Mine« (Alma, Park County, Colorado, USA) In nature's palace of the magnificent rhodochrosite samples	60
The Pikes Peak and its localities (Colorado, USA) Amazonite, 'white cap' and other curiosities	64
Benitoite Gem Mine (San Benito County, California, USA) Official gem of the State of California: benitoite	68
Arkansas Mines (Arkansas, USA) Diamonds, rock crystals and other quartzes	72
Capão Mine (Rodrigo Silva district near Ouro Preto, Brazil) From gold to hoarded imperial topaz	76
Mines in Rio Grande do Sul (Brazil) Amethyst and other quartzes	80
Africa	84
Tsumeb Mine (Oshikoto Region, Namibia) From the 'Green Hill': copper, azurite, malachite and much more	84
Merelani Mine (Umba Valley, Tanzania) Tanzanite, the blue miracle in the grassy steppe	88
Australia	92
Queensland Mines (Australia) 'White Man's Hole', a competitor in the opal trade	92

Austrian and Slovenian Alps

106

The Knappenwand area in the Untersulzbach valley (Pinzgau, Austria)

106

A world-famous mineral locality for epidote, apatite and actinolite pieces

Habach Valley (Pinzgau, Austria)

110

The 'green gold' from the Hohe Tauern

Mežica Mine (formerly: Miess, Koroška region, Slovenia)

114

From the 'Death Valley': wulfenites, galenites and calcites

Italian Alps

118

Mines near Zogno-Camissinone (Brembana Valley, Lombardy, Italy)

118

Fluorite crystals for the crushing machines of the rock mills

Fenillaz Mine in Brusson (Aosta Valley, Italy)

122

The Alpine gold province

Swiss Alps

126

Cavradi gorge (Canton of Grisons, Switzerland)

126

Under the spell of the rock ridges: haematites, smoky quartz and anatases

Planggenstock (Canton Uri, Switzerland)

130

'My best finds are from the Canton Uri': Wite, fluorite, smoky quartzes and rock crystals

French Alps

134

Mine de la Gardette (Villard-Notre-Dame, Département Isère, France)

134

Not enough gold!

Mines de La Mure (Département Isère, France)

138

In the shadow of coal mining: siderites, sphalerites and tetrahedrites

From the concealment of nature to power and splendour	144
Antiquity	145
Compressed magnificence of the world	145
Where the finest lapis lazuli in the world can be found – Sar-e Sang and the Sumerians	145
'I hewed out lumps of amethyst' – Wadi el-Hudi, the mine of Pharaoh Sesostris I	151
'Higher to a greatly superior position' – Gold for the Minoans, Mycenaean and Argeads	154
'Spots like white sand sprinkled over it' – Imperial porphyry from Mons Porphyrites	160
Middle Ages	167
'And her light was like unto a stone most precious'	167
'Sapphires ... are also born there' – Sabaragama's blue corundums for the Visigothic King Recceswinth	167
'In the subtlety of the air and clarity of the water' – Fatimid caliphs and their rock crystals from Madagascar	170
'He would forfeit both his life and his goods' – Kuh-e-Lal, Tha Hpan Pin and Ratnapura: spinels for Emperor Charles IV	175
'Get silver and copper' – A silver mine but still, everything lost: Archduke Sigismund	182
The Modern Age	187
'A spark of the divine'	187
'Lord of turquoise' – 'Chalchihuitl' as tribute to the Aztec king	187
'Unlimited power of God' – Muzo and Chivor emeralds for Emperor Rudolf II	192
'The only places in the world' – The blue star diamond: Tavernier Blue, French Blue, Hope	198
'Of all the gauds ... the most fatal' – Opálbánya then Australia: precious opals for Queen Victoria	203
Endnotes	208