

Table of Contents

Foreword	V
Michael Staack and Bernhard Koch
Introduction: The Distinctive Nature of the IBSA Countries and Their Stance towards R2P	1
Dan Krause and Daniel Peters
Rising Powers and Norm Entrepreneurship: IBSA and the Responsibility to Protect	11
Folashadé Soulé-Kohndou
It Is More than What It Seems: Understanding India's Perspective on "Responsibility to Protect"	41
Madhan Mohan Jaganathan
Brazil's Inconsistent Approach towards International Organizations and R2P: Theory and Practice	71
Paula Wojcikiewicz Almeida
A Brazilian Perspective on Development and R2P: Analysing the Linkages between Domestic and Foreign Policies under Lula da Silva and Dilma Rousseff	101
Eduardo Gonçalves Gresse, Fernando Preusser de Mattos and Daniel Peters ix

South Africa's Foreign Policy and R2P	149
Jan Mutton
Still on Board? South Africa and the Responsibility to Protect	181
Dan Krause
List of Contributors	211