Table of Contents

Rajesh Heynickx and Stéphane Symons
Into Neo-Thomism: Reading the Fabric of an Intellectual Movement  —  3

Part I Shaping A New Society

James Chappel
The Thomist Debate over Inequality and Property Rights in Depression-Era Europe  —  21

Wim Weymans
Religion, human rights and democracy in post-1940 France in theory and practice: from Maritain’s Thomism to Vignaux’s secular realism  —  39

Rajesh Heynickx
Epistemological Tracks: On Religion, Words, and Buildings in 1950’s Belgium  —  59

John Carter Wood

Part II. Encountering Phenomenology, Existentialism, and Aesthetics

Edward Baring
Neo-Scholasticism, Phenomenology, and the Problem of Conversion  —  113

Dries Bosschaert
A Great Deal of Controversy? A Case Study of Dondeyne, Grégoire, and Moeller Integrating Phenomenology and Existentialism in Louvain Neo-Thomism  —  131

Adi Efal-Lautenschläger
Gilson’s Poletics  —  159
Part III. Reconciling Science and Religion

Sigrid Leyssen and Annette Mülberger
Psychology from a Neo-Thomist Perspective. The Louvain-Madrid Connection. — 181

Jaume Navarro
Science contra Science. The Battle for Legitimate Knowledge in the Spanish Catholic Journals in the Early Twentieth Century — 205

Part IV. Mediating Tradition

Christopher S. Morrissey
The Analogy of Marshall McLuhan — 231

Herman Paul
Vetera Novis Augere: Neo-Scholastic Philosophers and Their Concepts of Tradition — 255

Karim Schelkens
Thomas Aquinas or John Henry Newman? The Intellectual Itinerary of Johannes Willebrands — 281

About the Authors — 301

Index of Persons — 305