

Contents

Getting Started	1
1. The Basics – an Overview	3
Dancing Requires Energy	4
Providing Energy – Oxygen Is the Key	6
Digestion – from Food to Metabolism	8
Carbohydrates – a Source of Energy	13
The Blood Sugar Level – an Important Regulating Unit.	15
Energy Reserves for Dance.	18
Fat – a Source of Energy.	19
Not All Fats Are Alike	20
Proteins – Building Blocks for the Body	23
Quality Lies in the Combination	24
Vitamins and Minerals, etc.	28
Vitamins and Phytonutrients.	30
Minerals – Macrominerals and Trace Elements	32
2. Drinking – Fluids Are Crucial	36
Water and Its Significance for Dancers.	36
Perspiration – an Intelligent Cooling System	38
The Dangers of Lacking Fluids	40
The Right Drink	42
Selection Criteria	44
Handle with Care!	46
Drinking at the Right Time	48
3. What? The Overwhelming Number of Choices	51
Daily Requirements – Recommendations for Planning Your Diet.	52
Breakfast – Getting off to a Good Start.	56

Cold Breakfasts	57
Warm Breakfasts	59
Main Meals – the Basis for Fitness	61
The ‘Plate of Thirds’ – Healthy Nutrition at a Glance	63
Snacks – Energy on the Go	64
Practice Makes Perfect – Some General Information	68
Eat with All Senses	68
Warm or Cold?	69
Understanding Sugar	70
Comfort Foods	73
Food in Balance – a Planning Aid	76
Dietary Supplements – Are They Necessary?	76
If Things Don’t Run Smoothly – Digestive Problems and Food
Intolerances	77
Digestion Is Work.	78
Food Intolerance	79
4. When? Timing Is Everything	84
Eating Around a Dancer’s Schedule	86
Before Dancing: Stock up on Energy	86
While Dancing: Maintain Your Energy	89
After Dancing: Accelerate Regeneration	90
A Daily Meal Plan	91
Reality Can Be a Different Story	93
No Time, No Space	93
Working Evenings	95
5. How? Healthy Nutrition in the Daily Routine	96
Preparation Is the Key – Shop with a Plan	96
Writing a Shopping List	97
Navigating the Offers	99
Reading Labels	101

Seasonal and Regional	103
Organic – Yes or No?	103
‘Free From’ and ‘Diet’ Products – the Power of Advertising . . .	104
Cooking Tips for Everyday Life	104
The Right Amount of Water	105
Oil – a How-To	106
Healthy Toppings – Sprouts, Seeds, etc.	107
Homemade or Ready-Made Meals?	108
Eating Out	110
6. Fit and Slim – a Challenge for Dancers.	113
How Many Calories Does a Dancer Need?	114
Your Basic Energy Needs	114
Your Total Energy Needs – Movement Is the Key	116
Figure and Body Composition	118
BMI – the Body Mass Index	118
Body Fat – an Unpopular Necessity	120
Maintaining Body Fat for Health	123
Much Ado About Weight	126
Dancing Influences One’s Weight	127
Dancing Influences One’s Diet	128
A New Living Situation May Alter One’s Diet	130
Putting Dieting to the Test	134
Dropping Weight Too Quickly – the Body’s Emergency Plan . .	135
How to Lose Weight the Healthy Way	137
Eating Disorders – Awareness Is the Key	139
Causes, Risk Factors, Triggers	140
Is This Still Normal? Warning Signs of an Eating Disorder . . .	142
Forms of Eating Disorders	145
When There Is Cause for Concern – Dealing with
Eating Disorders	147
Avoiding Eating Disorders – Tips for the Dance World	148

7. Tables of Foods and Nutrients 151

Appendix

Further Reading 165
Useful Websites 169
Acknowledgements 170
About the Authors 172
Index 174