

4	Preface Walter Altmann	69	LOCAL FLAVOURS
5	Foreword	70	São Leopoldo
9	INTRODUCTION Christoph Anders Cornelia Füllkrug-Weitzel Margot Käßmann	70	Introductions from Hosts
14	A GLOBAL STUDY EXPERIENCE Christoph Anders	72	Worship
19	INTERACTING THEMES AND DISCURSIVE SPACES	75	Concluding Meditations
20	Global Contexts Ion Sauca Kaisamari Hintikka Jerry Pillay	79	Visits to Congregations
22	Reformation and Transformation Today Essentials of Reformation Tradition for the Public Witness of Churches and Transformation of Society as Seen from the Perspectives of the South Jerry Pillay	80	Exposure Visits
27	Eastern Germany The Heartland of Protestant Reformation and the Most secularized Part of the World: A Provocation for Churches? Monika Wohlrab-Sahr	82	Challenges of fundamentalism in theological education raised at Brazil consultation
31	Christian Mission and Education in China: Impact and Lessons Theresa C. Carino	83	Halle
37	The Role of Reformation Traditions and Churches for (Transformative) Education in African Contexts Esther Mombo	83	Introductions from Hosts
42	Reformation and Education Today Challenges, Potentials and Learning Experiences for Education in a Context of Religious Diversity and Growing Extremism in the South John S. Sadananda	85	Opening Worship
46	Brazil: Churches in the Public Sphere Toward a Public Theology focused on Citizenship Rudolf von Sinner	88	Bible Studies
52	Reformation and Transformation Today Challenges, Potentials and Learning Experiences for Leadership Development and Diakonia Tammy Jackson	92	Exposure Visits
58	INTERACTING CONTEXTS Insights from the workshops in São Leopoldo and Halle	94	Public Forum on “Religious Life and the Churches in Eastern Germany”
59	Public Theology and the Churches’ Social Witness	100	Worship
60	Political Participation and Democratization	101	East Germany’s “secular reality” a new challenge to Reformation tradition
61	Human Dignity, Integrity of Creation, and Alternative Development	103	AN ONGOING JOURNEY
62	Education, Liberation, and Societal Transformation	103	Journeying Together From São Leopoldo to Halle – A Working Paper
65	Suffering, Solidarity, and the Theology of Empowerment	108	Looking back Reflecting on the “Twin” Consultation Amélé Ekué Michael Biehl
66	Public Witness amidst Religious Pluralization and Secularization	113	Theses from the R-E-T Process
		115	APPENDICES
		115	Project Outline: Reformation – Education – Transformation
		118	Reflectors’ Report, São Leopoldo
		122	Communiqué Participants of the first consultation of the “Twin process”, São Leopoldo, Brazil
		126	Statement by Participants at the Halle Consultation An invitation to Reformation - Education - Transformation