

Contents

Acknowledgements

Abbreviations

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Executive summary | 1 |
| 1 Introduction | 3 |
| 2 Research design: theory and method | 4 |
| 2.1 Democratisation and external support | 4 |
| 2.2 Societal values, political attitudes and democracy support | 6 |
| 2.3 Social values, actor constellations and the effectiveness of external support for democracy | 7 |
| 2.4 Methodological approach and case selection | 10 |
| 3 Country analysis: democratic reforms in Uganda | 11 |
| 3.1 Political background in Uganda: from independence to present | 11 |
| 3.2 Case 1: constitutional reforms to remove term limits | 12 |
| 3.3 Case 2: Anti-Homosexuality Act | 18 |
| 4 Appraising the hypotheses: explaining the effectiveness of support to democracy | 25 |
| 4.1 Access to resources strengthens domestic actors | 25 |
| 4.2 Popular attitudes do not necessarily dictate outcomes | 26 |
| 4.3 Donor incentives, if sufficient and coordinated, can shape outcomes | 27 |
| 4.4 Public criticism makes little positive difference | 28 |
| 5 Conclusions and recommendations | 29 |
| 5.1 Conclusions | 29 |
| 5.2 Recommendations | 30 |
| References | 33 |
| Annex I: Chronology of events | 39 |
| Annex II: Ugandan value-orientations | 41 |
| Annex III: List of interviews | 45 |