

Contents

Karl Härter The Transnationalisation of Criminal Law in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Century: Political Crime, Police Cooperation, Security Regimes and Normative Orders – an Introduction .....	1
Jean Conrad Tyrichter The Formation of Transnational Criminal Law within the German Confederation: a Normative Order? .....	21
Diego Nunes Extradition and Political Crimes in the ‘International Fight against Crime’: Western Europe and Latin America, 1833–1933	41
Tina Hannappel Extradition and Expulsion as Instruments of Transnational Security Regimes against Anarchism in the Late Nineteenth Century .....	65
Holger Marcks Who’s the Criminal? Anarchist Assassinations and the Normative Conflict about Legitimate Violence .....	99
Wouter Klem ‘Hurray for the Iron Man!’ Chief Police Commissioner Willem Voormolen and the Dutch Attempt to Join the International Anti-Anarchist Struggle .....	133
Jens Jäger The Making of International Police Cooperation, 1880–1923 ..	171
Richard Bach Jensen The Rise and Fall of the ‘Social Crime’ in Legal Theory and International Law: The Failure to Create a New Normative Order to Regularize Terrorism, 1880–1930s .....	197

Sylvia Kesper-Biermann Security, Transnational Law and Emotions. The History of the Transnational Anti-Torture Regime from the Enlightenment to the 1984 United Nations Convention Against Torture .....	213
---	-----